HUMAN RESOURCES MANAGER
York Regional Police, a contemporary and growing organization of approximately 900 employees, is looking for an experienced Manager of Human Resources. Reporting to the Deputy Chief of Police, this highly motivated, energetic and organized individual is required to oversee the Human Resources department.
Duties: The successful candidate will manage the organization's Human Resources function, including: job evaluation; pay equity; performance management; labour/employee relations; human resources planning; training and development; recruitment and selection; occupational health and safety; and employee benefits and services administration. The Human Resources Manager may also be required to assist the Police Services Board in working agreement negotiations.
Qualifications: Your seven years of related experience and in-depth knowledge of employment legislation are complemented by a university degree and a CHRM designation. Well developed human relations and organizational skills, excellent communications and negotiation abilities, and the ability to implement personnel policies and procedures are required.
Salary: A competitive salary and benefits package is offered.
To be considered for this opportunity, please forward your resume, by August 1st, 1997, to the address below. We thank all applicants for their interest but wish to advise that only those selected for an interview will be contacted. All applications and/or resumes received are collected under the authority of the Municipal Act and will be used to determine eligibility for potential employment. Questions about this collection of personal information may be directed to the Officer in Charge of Staff Services.
