Town reports eliminate surprises

If you're thinking of putting your name on the Municipal Elections ballot, you will want to make a stop at the Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library to do a bit of research.

The last thing anybody wants is to get into something and be unpleasantly surprised.

"When we got into office, the thing that surprised me most was to find that things were just as bad as we'd been saying they were."

John F. Kennedy

So don't be surprised. Visit the library and look over past town council minutes. Look over the Community of Stouffville Secondary Plan, the Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville Growth Management Strategy and Secondary Plan "Fiscal Impact Assessment," or some of the other reports which are for in-house use.

There are also three books of help to the potential candidates or to anyone generally interested in the process.

Candidates and Electors covers aspects such as municipal and school offices, conflict of interest, rights of electors, incompatible offices, campaign contributions and election records.

The chapters are fairly short and straight to the point. Although each chapter has important information, it is possible to choose only the chapters of specific interest to you.

LIBRARY NEWS

After you've gotten the general idea of what's involved, and you're still interested in running for office, you will want to look at How to Campaign for Municipal Elected Office, and Municipal Election Law 97. Both of these books have short chapters with clear table of contents, making it very easy to target specific information.

The Candidate's Campaign Checklist is a great place to start and when you're ready to really get going, the two chapters on canvassing will really come in handy.
