

Novopharm wins distribution battle

Officials of Stouffville's Novopharm are celebrating this week after winning a fight to market an ulcer drug.

After six years of legal and legislative battles over the rights to market generic Zantac, marketing approval has been granted to Novopharm Ltd.'s United States division, reports company spokesman Carol Guaccero.

Novopharm, a Canadian-owned global pharmaceutical company, will be the sole distributors of the product in the U.S.
