Company pays attention to details

Walsh Painting & Decorating has been a familiar face in Markham for 10 years

Whatever job James Walsh and his employees are doing, clients can be sure that the job will be completed efficiently, but with great care to details and workmanship.

"I take pride in the work we do on each job," said the owner of Walsh Painting & Decorating.

"I live in the town and I often bump into my past clients. It gives me a great deal of satisfaction to know that they've been pleased with the results."

Walsh and his small crew of skilled painters and decorators undertake jobs as small as one room to those that take several months to complete, he said. They also do both residential and commercial homes and buildings.

The list of services Walsh Painting & Decorating performs is extensive and includes painting, wallpapering, stenciling, stucco, drywalling, faux finishing, ragging and color washing, exterior work and other custom finishes such as vanities and cabinets.

Walsh uses various paints to emulate marble, wood grain and a number of other effects.

"The painting & decorating has worked out very well for me and I'm glad to have everything done in my home. The crew was excellent and the price was very reasonable."

Walsh Painting & Decorating has worked on many projects in the Markham area. The company has a reputation for quality work and excellent customer service.

All of his staff have served full apprenticeships so they are knowledgeable in the whole trade of painting and decorating, not just parts of it, he said.

Most of the work the Markham-based company receives are referrals from satisfied clients.

Clients are consulted, so Walsh can find out what their needs are.

"With assistance from the clients, we achieve the styles and finishes they are aiming for."

"It's my goal for them to live in the setting we've helped created and for the whole process to be less stressful for them."

And to make it as painless as possible, none of his jobs are sub-contracted out, Walsh and his staff, some of whom have been with the company for five or six years, do the work themselves, he said.

Clients need to see familiar faces. People need to feel confident and safe leaving strangers in their home.

And that confidence comes from the fact that they're great people's home like their own. "I'll be back and I'll be back with respect. It's not just a job, it's a service."
