

Steam Threshing Days

The crowds emerge again (top right) after a rain shower, while Bob Hillis of Mt. Albert (right) drives his scale model of a 1915 Case tractor for an admiring Suzanne Allison with Tyler, 2, and Megan, 5. David McQueen (below) tacks up a sign for visitors to enquire about the Oak Ridges Moraine. Candlemaker Nancy Hannah explains her craft to Theresa Pope with Daniel Stevenson, 3, and Donna Pope Stevenson with twins Sean and Aimee-Lyne, 10, while Elaine Glassman poses with her papier maché dolls.
