Car fire damages four vehicles at flea market parking lot

FIRE DEPT.

A car fire on the weekend at the Stouffville Flea Market caused damage to nearby cars.

At 10:42 a.m. last Saturday, Stouffville's fire department responded to a car fire call.

When they arrived, the fire was so hot it had damaged the paint on cars parked on either side.

In total, four vehicles were damaged in the blaze.

The cause of the fire was unknown at press time and no dollar amounts were available in terms of damage.

Smoke fills seniors' home

Stouffville's fire department was called to the seniors residence at 325 Elm Rd. late Sunday night.

At around 11:40 p.m. the fire department responded the call.

An electrical motor overheated, causing enough smoke to fill the residence and send two seniors to hospital with smoke inhalation.

There was no damage to the building and no other injuries were reported.
