from our neighbors in Uxbridge," said Boyd.

The success of Hockey Swap '97 hinges on community involvement.

"We'll be ready to handle lots of people," said Boyd.

As well as holding the hockey swap, Boyd's Source for Sports in partnership with Whitchurch-Stouffville, will host a hockey equipment fitting seminar on Sept. 17 at 7:30 p.m. at the Stouffville Recreation Complex.

"Parents tell us that they don't know what to do with the hockey equipment.

"We're offering this seminar to teach the parents how to dress the child for hockey so that the child is protected during the game," said Boyd.

The store owner is getting lots of help with the seminar as there will be representatives attending from such companies as CCM, Bauer, Louisville, Coho and Jofa.
