

Exciting fall programs and events are coming

"Never on Sunday" seems to be a phrase that has slipped into virtual oblivion along with "day of rest."

It's been pushed out of favour by the new words-on-the-scene, "Sunday hours."

Sunday hours have been a reality in our Main Street patch since the beginning of the year when library service was extended to include Sunday afternoons.

We've been monitoring the action and find that Sunday at the library is popular with families who drift in after lunch to pick up books and videos and with students who dash in to tackle last-gasp assignments.

A fair number of people, members and non-members, just drop in to relax, read newspapers and magazines or check the Latcham Gallery display before continuing on their way.

The library is open, if you need a reminder, from noon to 4 p.m.

Golf tourney cancelled

Unfortunately, the Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library Golf Tournament, which was scheduled to run at Sleepy Hollow Golf and Country Club Sept. 22, has been cancelled.

Co-ordinators Mark Kostandoff and Lynda Giles would like to thank the sponsors and the many individuals who stepped forward to help with this fundraiser. We look forward to holding the tournament in 1998.

Fall Fare

It's hard to believe that the fall programs have started and that we're already anticipating library events in October.

The month starts off with poetic pizzazz when Linda Stitt and Charlene Jones unleash their verse and hilarious repartee at the library on Wednesday, Oct. 1 at

LIBRARY NEWS

7 p.m.

The repartee is not likely to be poetic (but it might be hilarious) when the library hosts Election Warmup at Stouffville District Secondary School on Friday, Oct. 17 at 7 p.m.

The evening will give candidates running for municipal office an opportunity to present their platforms, debate local issues and answer questions from the audience.

Also featured is Ontario Library Week, from Oct. 20 to the 27.

That's when we pat ourselves on the back and redouble efforts to entice everyone in town into the library to see what a super place it is.

Where's the lasso?

Clarification

There was a mistake in the Whitchurch-Stouffville Library's Web site address in a previous column.

The correct version is <http://www.itree.com/library/whitchch/index.html>

Explorers group meets Monday evenings

Explorers has begun again at Stouffville United Church.

This is a group for girls 9, 10 and 11 years (Grades 4, 5 and 6).

The group meets each Monday evening 7 to 8:30 p.m.

All girls in the community are welcome ... no church affiliation is necessary.

For more information call the church office 640-1163.
