

YMCA seeking nominees for Peace Medallion

NOMINATIONS SOUGHT

The YMCA of Greater Toronto is seeking the names of local individuals or groups who have made contributions to the development of a more peaceful world in 1997.

Successful nominees will be awarded the YMCA Peace Medallion during World Peace Week, which runs Nov. 15 to 22.

Established in Canada in 1984, Peace Week focuses on exploring peace from personal, community and international perspectives.

Nominees are those who encourage the community to work together for a more peaceful and just world; who work freely for the common good and who give willingly without expecting recognition.

Local recipients of the award will be honoured at a special event Nov. 19 at the North York YMCA at 7 p.m.

The deadline for nominations is Oct. 10 and forms are available at the town office. For more information call Joyce Deaust at (416) 225-9622, ext. 211.

CHURCH ACTIVITIES

The Community Mennonite Church, which currently meets at the Memorial Christian Church at Main and Stouffer streets, offers a variety of fall activities for interested residents.

A sewing and craft circle is held at 7:30 p.m. in the church basement on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month.

Beefeater Restaurant is the venue for the men's breakfast group, which meets every other Monday at 7 a.m., and a women's coffee hour is held between 9:30 and 11 a.m. on alternate Thursdays (for more information call 640-6737).

The church is holding a Community Mennonite Fall Fest Sept. 27 at 5 p.m.

Grapevine

Kate Gilderdale

Visitors can tuck into corn, sausages on a bun and enjoy a marshmallow roast around the camp fire, or take a wagon ride.

Members of the congregation also participated in the Black Creek Mennonite Relief Sale and Quilt Auction, which took place Sept. 20 at Black Creek Pioneer Village.

The church also holds Bible study and discussion groups and newcomers are warmly welcome.

For more information on church activities, contact pastor Gord Alton at 640-9730.

SADDLERY WINS AWARD OF MERIT

The Ontario Chamber of Commerce presented an Award of Merit to Schleese Saddlery Service in Stouffville Sept. 9 at its 15th annual awards ceremony, which was held at the Metropolitan Toronto Convention Centre.

Schleese was recognized for business excellence and accomplishments in the past year.

BESSEY AT LATCHAM GALLERY

A four-day exhibition of new paintings by Stouffville artist James Bessey will begin Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Bessey, who is celebrating his 25th anniversary as a full-time artist, will be at the gallery Thursday evening and during the day on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, and is donating a portion of the proceeds from his show to the Latcham Gallery. Everyone is welcome to attend.

BONNIE STERN AIDS HEART AND STROKE

Acclaimed chef Bonnie Stern will be the special guest at a fundraiser for the Heart and Stroke Foundation at Angie's Eatery Oct. 7.

The evening will include a cooking demonstration and a question and answer session.

Stern's most recent Heartsmart cookbook will be available for sale and refreshments will be served.

Space is limited, so call now to reserve your place. Tickets are $10 each and are available by calling 640-1635 or 640-1408.
