Explorers meet every Monday

Explorers has begun again at Stouffville United Church. This is a group for girls 9, 10 and 11 years old (Grades 4, 5 and 6).

p.m. All girls in the community are welcome, no church affiliation necessary. For more information call the church office 640-1163.

St. Mark's holds Pie Bee

In lieu of St. Mark's Fall Fair, the social club has decided to continue with the Pie Bee.

St. Mark's plans to prepare 600 unbaked pies, including apple, cherry, strawberry and pumpkin.

They will be available for sale after 2:30 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 4.

The pies will be prepared, wrapped and boxed with instructions for baking. They can also be frozen.

Each pie costs $6, and they can be picked up in the church basement until 6 p.m.

Join St. John

The St. John Ambulance Brigade can be seen at hundreds of community events every year providing participants with top quality first aid services.

The brigade is looking for enthusiastic people of all ages to help their community while learning useful skills. Being a member of the St. John Ambulance provides people the opportunity to develop leadership skills, make new friends, gain work experience, and much more.

The only qualifications needed to join the Brigade are: a valid first aid certificate, about 3 or 4 hours per week, and a desire to help others.

For more information on joining the Brigade please call 1-800-268-1677.

The cost of the 1997 Blazer in the North Pointe Chev Olds ad that appeared in the Economist & Sun on Sept. 25, should have read $29,977 & not $27,777 as appeared.
