

Enjoy musical trip to Paris and New York via this show

KATE GILDERDALE
Correspondent

Take a musical trip to Paris, New York and Mississippi without leaving town.

Your tour leaves from Parkview Village auditorium and your guides are The Innovators, a group of 10 accomplished performers from Sutton, who invite everyone in the community to join them for a musical presentation called 'Dreamer's Holiday'.

Your adventure begins at Maxim's in Paris, one of the most famous restaurants in the world, before taking off for New York's legendary Central Park.

After a short intermission, you will be transported to Mississippi on board the Cotton Blossom riverboat, to enjoy the grand finale.

Lovely costumes, beautiful music and a warm welcome are guaranteed.

'Dreamer's Holiday' begins at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 7 and the performance is just over an hour long. Donations will be collected at the door.

Workshops aid parents of young children

Two Hour Workshops for parents of children between one and five years on a variety of topics: asthma and allergies, sibling rivalry, toilet training, safety, healthy sexuality, self-esteem and prevention of sexual abuse are offered. Cost is $5.

For information and to register, call York Region Health Services, Health Connection Line at 773-3230.
