

Help Kinettes make Christmas happy for needy

SUPPORT KINETTES

Every year the Stouffville Kinettes Club raises money to buy Christmas toys for children whose families rely on the food bank for help. "We use Regal books as a fund-raiser and we are willing to drop off books and pick up orders for anyone who wants to support us," said Susan Smith. The catalogue offers unique gift ideas, as well as cards and wrapping paper, and is a great way to shop and make Christmas happy for families in need. To order your catalogue, call 640-6769.

CHURCH BAZAAR

Get a start on Christmas shopping at the St. James Presbyterian Church Bazaar, which takes place Oct. 25 from 1 to 3.30 p.m. at 6432 Main St. Home baked goods, jams, jellies, pickles, crafts and hand-knitted items will be on sale. Get your copy of the St. James Cook Book and take note of some special 'treasures from the attic.' Try your luck at the silent auction and relax in the tea room, while younger family members take advantage of the children's play area. The following weekend, St. James celebrates its 137th anniversary with a pot luck supper 6.30 p.m. Nov. 1 at the church and a special worship service Nov. 2 at 11 a.m. Visitors will be warmly welcomed to both events. For more information on programs and activities, call the church office 640-3151.

ARTISTS AT THEATRE

The Lemonville Group of Artists is featured in the current exhibition at Markham Theatre. Visitors can drop into the auditorium any time during opening hours in October and enjoy a great selection of work from our talented local
