

Clippers sail along in the early going

The Edwards Murphy bantam Clippers had a nine-game win streak snapped in recent exhibition action, but rebounded for a win and a tie in league play, and two victories in three tries at a Thanksgiving weekend tournament in St. Thomas.

The Clippers held Port Perry to a 3-3 tie through two periods of their exhibition match last Monday. But the Port platoon came up with three unanswered markers in the third to win it 6-3 and put an end to the Stouffville squad's winning streak.

Brent Meyer, Dave Brown and Justin Heyworth had the Clippers' goals, with assists going to Heyworth and Ryan Fontanna (two each), Lukas Williams and Brown.

The Clippers were determined to make up for the loss in a game with Markham two nights later, outshooting their hosts 53-17, but having to settle for a 5-4 win.

Lukas Williams led the way with two goals, with singles coming from Brown, Dylan Harrison and Geoff Dunn.

Assisting were Brown (three), Fontanna (two), Mike Vandervoort, Heyworth, Peter Smit and Matt Prentice.

Last Thursday at the Rec Centre, Clippers' goalkeeper Graham Smith made numerous saves in helping preserve a 0-0 tie in a goalkeepers' dual.

At St. Thomas, the Clippers opened with a 6-2 loss to Tecumseh, but bounced back to record triumphs of 6-1 and 4-1 over Brampton and London respectively.

The tournament was based on a points per period system, with the Clippers falling just a half point short of making the finals.

Scoring for the Stouffville outfit in the three games were: Brown (five), Williams (three), Prentice (two), Fontanna and Ryan Zonnekeyn.

Assists went to Jones, Fontanna, Vandervoort, Brown, Sullivan, Dunn and Prentice (two each), Williams, Zonnekeyn and Jeremy Morris.

Bantam girls shine on ice

The Transamerica Life bantam 'AA' Stars girls' rep hockey team is still undefeated six games into the new season.

Laura Johnston had two goals and an assist to lead the way as the Stars blanked the Etobicoke Dolphins 6-0 last Wednesday night at the Rec Centre.

Single goals went to: Candice Miller, Kristine Anderson, Jessica Clayson and Gillian Apps.

Julia Summerhill earned the shutout in the Stars net, and also chipped in with an assist. Other assists went to: Lisa Jacque, Blair Wilkinson, Stephanie Lee, Meighan O'Connor and Lindsay McCafferty.
