Black Hawks soar past Flyers

Ron Martyn had the hat trick to go with a two-goal effort by Garth Krisman to lift the Black Hawks to a 6-2 win over the Flyers in Stouffville Amateur Hockey League Over 40 division action at the Rec Centre on Oct. 19.

Mike Jones netted the other Hawks' goal. Brent Gibson had three assists and Bob Roberts two set ups. The Flyers got goals from Brent Stachel and Matt Hawkins.

Rick Glen netted a pair to back the shutout goalkeeping of Randy Osborne as the Blues blanked the Lightning 5-0.

Paul Kirby, Steve Del Zotto and George Sled rounded out the Blues scoring. Kirby and Wayne McMann each had two assists.

Jack Holder was a two-goal man, and Pat Madigan added a solo to give the Whalers a 3-1 win over the Ducks. Dave Wicksted replied for the Ducks.

Jim Gray had a pair of goals, and Dave Farlow clicked as well in the Senators 3-1 triumph over the Maple Leafs. The Leafs' score came from Andy Kroen.

FLAMES BEAR DOWN

In the Under 40 division, Rick Evans had the shutout touch, with Shawn Leonard notching a pair of markers, as the Flames scorched the Bruins 4-0. Tom Hammond and Steve Schneider also scored, with Glen Gibson picking up two assists.

Lee Brown broke loose for a trio of markers, and Mark Lucas and Lee Brown also found the range, in the Devils' 5-3 triumph over the Nordiques. Dave Petramala and Steve Balsdon each set up two goals. Trevor Todd clicked twice for the Nords. Kelly Burrows also scored, while Brandon Pridham picked up three assists.

Mark Savery and Bill English each scored twice, and Steve Brooks added a single, to give the Rangers a 5-2 win over the Flyers. Brooks and Dave Mehaffey had two set ups apiece. Trevor Kennedy and Steve Rendall clicked for the Flyers.

Gary Carr and Al Turner collected two goals and two assists apiece, and Chris Baggs added a fifth tally to give the Ducks a 5-2 victory over the Sharks. Baggs also had two assists.

The Sharks replied on goals by Greg Blair and Ed Burkholder.

The Kings got a deuce from Rob Campitelli, with Brian Henderson and Mike Sear scoring as well, as the Kings doubled up the North Stars 4-2. Brian Ziegler and Naz Nicasro countered for the Stars.

Jeff Bower set up both Kings scores. Chris Burkholder, Ken MacKay, Terry Porter and Derek Hamilton all found the range as the Canadiens clipped the Red Wings 4-3.

Dave Andreoli assisted on two Habs goals. Steve Schell accounted for two Wings goals, with Ryan Burkholder adding the third. Bob Tyson set up two Wings goals.

THEY'RE OFF AND RUNNING: Bruce's Mill Conservation Area played host to the annual York Region Elementary Athletic Association area north cross-country meet on Tuesday. Part of the action saw these tyke girls get off to a good start in their age group event.

Bantam Clippers continue smooth sailing in league play

Still undefeated. That's the status of the Edwards Murphy bantam Clippers nine games into the season as the Stouffville Clippers put another four wins on the board last week while outscoring their opponents 45-10.

The Clippers bombed Whitby 11-1 at the Rec Centre, then went on the road to record triumphs of 12-1, 10-2 and 12-6 over Pickering, Ajax and East Gwillimbury respectively.

While the offence rolled along, the Clippers' defence was also solid.

Goalkeepers Graham Smith and George Papazoglou were there when needed to make the big stops.

Looking after the scoring over the four game stretch were: Dave Brown (11 goals, two assists), Matt Sullivan (seven goals, nine assists), Geoff Dunn (three goals, 14 assists), Ryan Fontanna (five goals, four assists), Lukas Williams (three goals, one assist), Brent Meyer (three goals, six assists), Dylan Harrison (three goals, five assists), Casey Maude (three goals, eight assists), Ryan Jones (three goals, two assists), Ryan Zonnekeyn (two goals, one assist), Justin Heyworth (one goal), Matt Prentice (one goal, five assists), Mike Vandervoort (one goal, five assists), Peter Smit (seven assists) and Jeremy Morris (three assists).

The bantams are at the Rec Centre for an exhibition game Friday at 7:10 p.m.

Spartans have a field day in quarter finals

Alex Chacinski and Katie Sandiford scored in an overtime shootout to give the Stouffville District Secondary School (SDSS) Spartans field hockey team a 3-2 victory over Dr. J.M. Dennison S.S. in the York Region Athletic Association (YRAA) playoff quarter finals Monday at Brother Andre C.H.S.

Steph McLeod's goal with just four minutes left in regulation time tied the game at 1-1 for the SDSS squad, with the match finally decided on penalty strokes after two overtime periods failed to produce a goal.

Spartans rookie goalie Megan MacDonald earned the respect of coach Heather Henricks as she held her opposition shooters to just one goal in five tries in the shootout.

"She's only in Grade 9, so it was the first time she had ever faced that kind of pressure," praised Henricks. "The kids were all cheering her on from the sidelines (during the shoot out)."

The Spartans were to play Newmarket H.S. in the YRAA semi-finals on Wednesday with the winner advancing to Friday's final.

Sheffield students earn good grades

Stouffville's Sheffield Judo Club proved itself the best of the bunch at the Tomodaci Team Tournament held in Ancaster on Oct. 18.

The team representing the Ringwood Dr club took first place at the 12-15 year old competition, establishing it as one of the top club's in the province in that age group.

The Sheffield unit defeated a team from Port Colborne, as well as the host club, in the finals.

Team members include Dusty, Kyle and Trevor Chee-A-Tow, Adam Howe, David Reid and Seiji Ishiguro.

Local players Star in win over Panthers

Local content played a large part in the Richmond Hill tyke AAA Stars 9-2 victory over the Pickering Panthers Oct. 19 in Richmond Hill. Michael Del Zotto, a local minor hockey product, scored four goals for the Stars to contribute towards the lop sided triumph. The Stars roster also includes Stouffville's Jeffrey Kavluk and Jake Carrick.
