ATTENTION

YORK REGION SEPARATE SCHOOL BOARD PARENTS, GUARDIANS AND STUDENTS

Contract talks between the York Region Separate School Board and the OECTA union representing 2700 elementary and secondary school teachers at the Board broke off when teachers left mediation early Monday morning. As a result, teachers have now begun legal strike action.

OUR LEGAL STRIKE HERE IN YORK REGION SEPARATE SCHOOLS MAY WELL CONTINUE AFTER THE PROVINCIAL STRIKE HAS BEEN RESOLVED. If this happens, parents should be aware that:

- * classes will continue to be cancelled
- * as a service to parents who cannot make alternate arrangements, schools will be open - - provided the Board can ensure that children are safe and adequately supervised - - however, parents, who are able, are urged to keep their children at home
- * for the duration of the provincial strike, busing will continue to be suspended
- * busing will resume once the provincial strike has ended, but delays may be expected
- * principals and vice-principals will be in the schools

The Board Offer:

- * The Board has offered teachers a two-year contract which includes NO reductions to teacher salaries, NO reductions to current staffing levels, and ensures that York Region Separate School Teachers remain among THE HIGHEST PAID separate school teachers in the province.
- * The Board has agreed to the independent Fact Finder's recommendation to fully finance one of the three pay increments which teachers lost during the NDP's Social Contract in the early 1990's. This offer would increase the Board's teacher salary costs by $7.6 million over 4-1/2 years.
- * The Board has also offered to work with the teachers to restore the final two lost increments.

We are extremely disappointed that an agreement could not be reached and we regret the impact this strike will inevitably have on Catholic Education in York Region. We are willing to return to the table and it is our hope that we can bring this situation to a speedy resolution.

For up-to-the-minute updates concerning negotiations, parents and ratepayers may call our Teacher Negotiations Hotline at: (416) 221-5051 or (905) 713-1211, ext. 7040 or visit our web site at www.yrcssb.edu.on.ca. The Teacher's union - OECTA/AEFO - can be reached at (416) 492-4200 or (905) 773-2037.

Minor atoms off to good start

The State Farm-Legrow Agency/Cobequid Life Sciences minor atom Clippers are off to an 8-2-0 start in regular season play, outscoring their opponents 34-13 along the way.

The Clippers have won five of their last six, hanging defeats of 5-1 on Newmarket, 3-1 on Bradford, 4-3 on Uxbridge, 2-1 on Markham and 7-1 on Clarington.

Squeezed in between was a hard fought 4-2 road loss to Orillia.

Cameron Allan had five goals to lead the way. Other goals came from Brendon Laing, Kevin Rainbow and Alex Bruno (three each), Trevor Greenham, Brook Stachel and David Del Zotto (two each), Matthew Mulder, Zach Popper and Shayne Paterson. Adding assists were Popper (six), Paterson (four), Del Zotto (three), Stachel, Devon McDougall, Laing and Rainbow (two), Mulder, Allan, Bruno, Phillip Briggs and Landon Wideman.

Coach Steve Del Zotto attributes his team's success to team speed and solid defensive minded hockey.

"The boys have worked hard to learn and execute our team systems and it's paying off," he said.
