Community Centre, beginning at 8 p.m.

Some great door prizes will be up for grabs at the York-Durham Heritage Railway benefit dance Nov. 15 at the Uxbridge Arena and

Among the prizes received to date are a framed pen and ink sketch of the old Stouffville station by Brian Baker, donated by his mother, a sketch of the Uxbridge station by Gordon Ferguson, a beautiful gift from Lindy's Floral Boutique, and certificates for the York-Durham Heritage Railway.

Live music will be supplied by the Don Bowes Big Band, a highly respected ensemble which has performed at a fundraiser for the Stephen Leacock Museum in Orillia and recently recorded its first CD.

A light meal will be served around 11 p.m. and a cash bar will operate during the evening.

Donations towards the buffet would be welcome and local stores who can help out are asked to call the railway hot line at 852-3696 and leave a message.

Tickets are $20 each and are available from Blue Heron Books and Guardian Drugs in Uxbridge and Freckles and Lindy's Floral Boutique in Stouffville.

All proceeds will be used for the maintenance of the York-Durham Heritage Railway.
