

Mite selects romp over opposition in the early going

The Stouffville mite selects continue to steam roll over the opposition.
The mighty mites upped their exhibition and season record to a perfect 10 wins and no defeats with five wins in their last five outings while outscoring their opponents by a count of 60-2.
Kurtis Hulshof scored seven goals, while Ethan Werek and Patrick McEachen netted a trio apiece, in an 18-0 exhibition win over Vaughan. Andrew Sanders and Lee Averill each had a pair of goals, with Sam Carrick adding a solo marker.

Werek was a two-goal man, and McEachen added a third in a 3-2 victory over Port Credit in another exhibition contest.
In league action, Werek collected five goals, and McEachen potted a quartet of scores in an 18-0 win over Ajax. Other scorers were Averill and Kurtis Hulshof (three each), Carrick (two) and Sanders.
Werek led the way again, scoring four times in an 11-0 whitewash of Uxbridge. Sanders netted a pair, to go with singles by Ryan Adrian, Denver Gray, McEachen, Averill and Hulshof. The Stouffville squad made it 10 straight wins with a 10-0 shutout of Ajax.

McEachen, Hulshof, Werek and Sanders each lit the lamp twice to go with solos from Burrows and Carrick. McEachen racked up 14 assists in the five games. Werek had nine assists, Hulshof, Averill and Sanders, five assists each.

Players Star for peewees, tykes

A trio of Stouffville products has helped the Richmond Hill AAA major peewee Stars move one step closer to Quebec City, while the tyke Stars used Stouffville power in a recent one-sided victory.
Jordan Mabley, Mike Sullivan and Brad Paterson played key roles as the Stars outscored their opponents 31-5 in four games to take the Sault Ste. Marie Early Bird Tournament.
The Stars disposed of Windsor, Sudbury, North Bay and Coppercliff before edging the host team 3-2 in overtime in the championship final.
The tourney triumph, along with their league mark of five wins, a loss and a tie, should help the Stars in their bid to qualify for this season's Quebec International Peewee Tournament.
Meanwhile, the tyke AAA Stars got two goal performances from Stouffville's Michael Del Zotto and Jake Carrick, along with a single marker from Jeffrey Kavluk, in a 9-0 shutout win over Guelph in Richmond Hill on Nov. 2.
