Minor novice Clippers gain weekend split

It was a weekend split for the minor novice Clippers, while a pair of Stouffville players were helping the Richmond Hill AAA major novice Stars advance as far as the finals at a recent Kitchener tournament including teams from across Ontario and the northern

United States.

The Clippers were blanked 3-0 by Keswick, then bounced back to edge Clarington 2-1. Evan Tsopoulos and Justin Lacey had the Stouffville goals in their win over Clarington. Assists went to Richard Downing, Evan Tsopoulos and Mitchell Raithby.

Meanwhile, Brandon Walker and Cory Tanaka contributed one third of the Richmond Hill team's goals in the three games leading to the Stars unsuccessful championship final bid in the Kitchener Blue Line Tournament. Walker netted a trio of scores, adding an assist. Tanaka was good for two goals and three assists.

DON VALLEY NORTH LEXUS - TOYOTA ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

MELISSA NEUDOERFFER

Skating with the Unionville Skating Club for 11 years has paid off for Melissa Neudoerffer. This past summer and fall the 14-year-old Markham native completed her gold medals in dance and skating skills.

In addition to that, the Grade 10 Markville

Secondary School student is presently working on attaining her gold freestyle medal.

When Melissa is not working on her individual medals, she has also skated with the club's competitive precision teams for the last six years. This year, she is a member of the Black Ice Junior precision team in North York.
