

Experience A Country Christmas

A family event at Festival of Lights

The Uxbridge Cottage Hospital Foundation wants to put you and your family into the Christmas mood.

The foundation is hosting the sixth annual Festival of Lights December 3. The evening begins at 6 pm with a tour of the hospital.

At 7 pm, everyone is invited outside to watch as the mayor and the president of the foundation light the giant Christmas tree and to watch a beautiful firework display set to music, said Jo-Anne Gray, the foundation administrator.

Afterwards, Santa and his elves arrive from the North Pole to greet all the boys and girls. He will also be giving the children a candy cane.

But the evening doesn't end there.

This year, children can enjoy a variety of outdoor games hosted by National Sports.

While walking around, people can enjoy a steaming cup of hot chocolate or hot apple cider, munch on cookies and listen to One Voice, a new 60-member community choir who will be singing Christmas carols during the festival.

"It's not just an adult event, it's a family event. We really encourage people to bring their families."

Festival of Lights is a major fundraiser

The Festival of Lights is Uxbridge Cottage Hospital's foundation major fundraiser.

People can purchase Festival of Lights pins or make a cash donation. (Donation boxes will also be set up that night.)

Santa will make an appearance at the festival.

Anyone who makes a donation of $15 or more will be issued a tax receipt.
