

Parent Finders meet tonight

Parent Finders Markham-Stouffville meets this evening at 7:30 p.m. The meeting will take place in the community room of the Markham-Stouffville police station at McCowan Rd. at Carlton Rd. in Markham.

Learn CPR through St. John

Heart attacks are killing more and more Canadians every year. Do you know the signs and symptoms of an upcoming heart attack? Do you know CPR? Learn what to do. Knowing CPR can mean the difference between life and death. Every second counts and the longer a person suffering a heart attack waits for help, the lower their chances of survival. St. John Ambulance offers a wide range of first aid and CPR classes. For more information or to register please call 1-800-268-1677.

LITTLE DOLLS: Kristen Roberts, Stephanie Jupp and Lisa Munro hug dolls for sale at the 6th annual craft show for Cystic fibrosis, traditionally held in Stouffville, was held this year at the Fitzpatrick Physiotherapy Clinic on Main St. Markham last Saturday. The fundraising goal is to reach $2,000, with over $1,700 accounted for so far. Organizers said they plan to reach their goal by the weekend. All crafts for sale were made and donated by local craftspeople. There were also baked goods and raffle prizes offered.
