

Main Street Unionville gets into Christmas spirit all weekend long

The fun of Olde Tyme Christmas doesn't end after the parade Friday night, but continues right through the weekend.

December 6

Main Street Merchants & St. Matthew's Catholic School are hosting the Pancake Breakfast that will see Santa joining the children while they eat their breakfast.

Mo Vint & his magical train will also be there to entertain the kids.

The breakfast runs from 9:30 am to 1 pm and all the proceeds will be going to St. Matthew's Catholic School.

Mo Vint & his Magical Train will be at breakfast entertaining the children.

December 7

The Fred Varley Art Gallery is hosting its second annual tree trimming party.

All the children are invited to make an ornament at home and bring it between 1 pm and 2 pm and hang it on the tree.

Santa will be there to help reach the hard-to-get places.

Hot chocolate and cookies will also be served.

(Left) Everyone is invited to come out to the pancake breakfast on Saturday. Santa will be there enjoying freshly-made pancakes with lots of syrup.
