Stress disappears after a short visit with Gizella

Take a break from the stresses of everyday life by treating yourself – or someone you love – to a pedicure, facial or other relaxing treatment.

Gizella Nyulas, a fully licensed aesthetician and owner of Gizella's Skin and Beauty Care, offers clients a relaxing atmosphere to get away from it all.

"I like to work with people... and the fact that I can help make a difference" for my clients is important.

Gizella works out of a small room in the back of Salon Tres Chic in Unionville.

But, despite the size, the room is cozy.

During a session with a client, Gizella, who is both Canadian and European trained, has aromatherapy candles burning and soft music playing in the background.

Products and services are never pushed on a client, so by the time a client leaves she is completely relaxed.

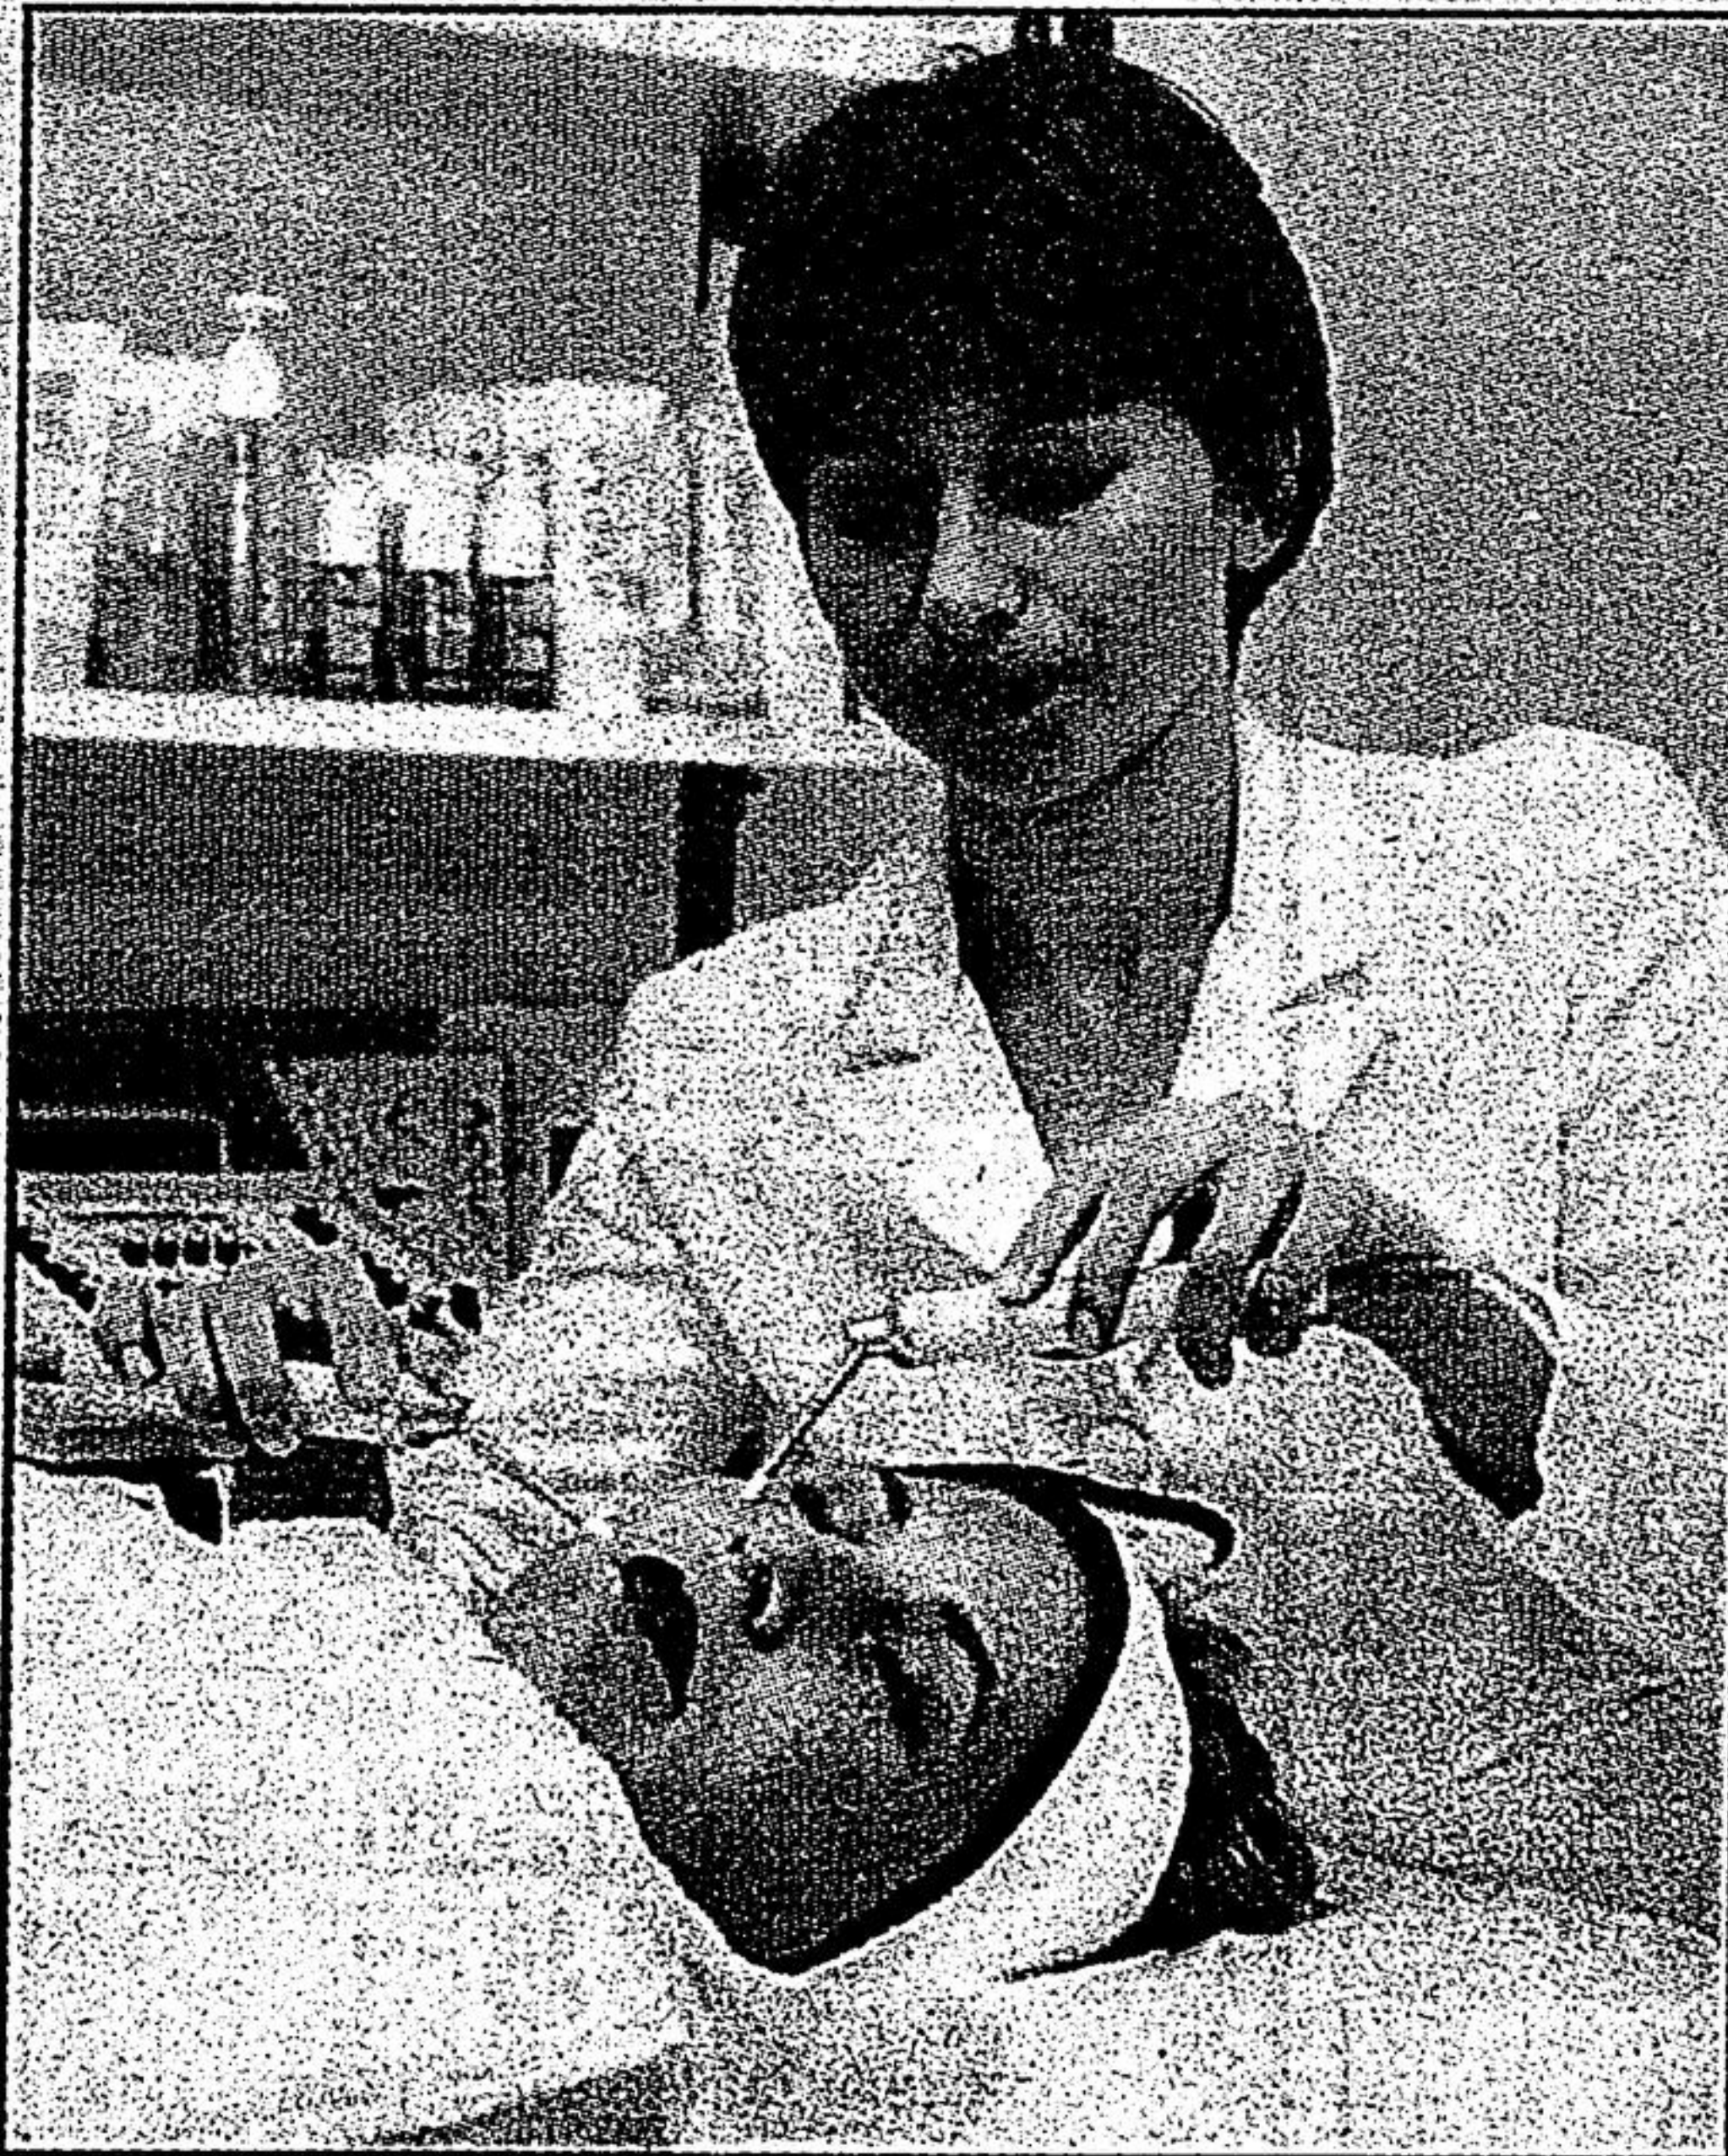

While most of Gizella's clients are female, she said she provides a number of services for men as well.

And the services she provides vary. Gizella does the usual pedicures, manicures, facials, waxing and makeovers, but she also does hydradermie, electrolysis, renewing treatments, ear-piercing and, most recently, non-surgical face lifting.

Also called myotonology, age is not as much a factor as skin and muscle conditions. Electrodes (powered by batteries, instead of electricity), sends micro-currents to the face to strength and exercise the muscles.

The results are firmer, more resilient muscles which make a client's face look healthier and younger looking.

While a single session can provide a dramatic change for a short period of time, a number of sessions are suggested (depending on the skin and muscle condition) for long lasting results.

Afterwards, a monthly maintenance visit is all that is required, she said.

And while her prices are reasonable, Gizella offers a 10 per cent discount for first-time clients. She also offers a 15 per cent discount on gift certificates worth $100 or more. Gizella uses France's Guinot, one of the best face and body products on the market.

Gizella's Skin and Beauty Care is located in Salon Tres Chic at 33 The Bridle Trail Centre.
