Rouge Valley Mennonite presents A Day In A Manger

Have you ever experienced a Christmas season when you just didn't feel like celebrating? When you didn't feel that special excitement or anticipation that everyone is supposed to get at this time of year?

Well, come spend A Day In A Manger to see how others have overcome this obstacle of not having the Christmas feeling. This play is an uplifting, up to date musical that will definitely put you in the Christmas spirit. A Day In A Manger is being presented by the congregation at Rouge Valley Mennonite Church. The directors and producers for this performance are Ann Reesor and Alyson Driedger.

Rouge Valley Mennonite Church is nestled in the country just east of Markham Village at 7452 Reesor Rd. between Hwy. 7 and Steeles Ave.

The show is to be performed on Sunday, Dec. 14 at 7 p.m. All are welcome and you

Members of Rouge Valley Mennonite Church present A Day In A Manger on Sunday at the church, located on Reesor Rd. are invited to bring a friend. Admission is free. Come and spend an evening filled with music and drama as you watch and listen to A Day In A Manger.

Rouge Valley Mennonite Church will also host a community candle light Christmas Eve service on Dec. 24 at 7:30 p.m. All are welcome.
