Let Immaculate Housekeeping Services do your dirty work

Immaculate Housekeeping Services wants to change people's perception about house cleaning companies.

Many companies say "we clean this and we clean that, there are no corners left untouched, but there are corners untouched," said Claudio Di Fede who owns the eight-year-old company.

"At IHS our talk is our work." Treating each home with care, the cleaning person (the same person cleans the home each time) is proficient, personable and approachable, said Di Fede.

"We like to build a relationship." Once a relationship is built, the client will feel confident about leaving the person in their home.

"The cleaning person (begins to know the ins and outs of the home."

They also know how the client likes things done.

And once there, the cleaning person will spend as long as necessary cleaning the home to the client's satisfaction.

"We are not a production line. We clean homes, like Ferrari builds cars."

The bonded company brings in their own top-of-the-line products.

But like the service, IHS is flexible

Claudio Di Fede, owner of Immaculate Housekeeping services.

and will change the products on request.

"If there is an asthmatic person in the home, we will make changes to suit their needs."

For details about the IHS call 472-3881.

"IHS is surprisingly inexpensive for the service you receive."
