

Mayor's fund buys printers

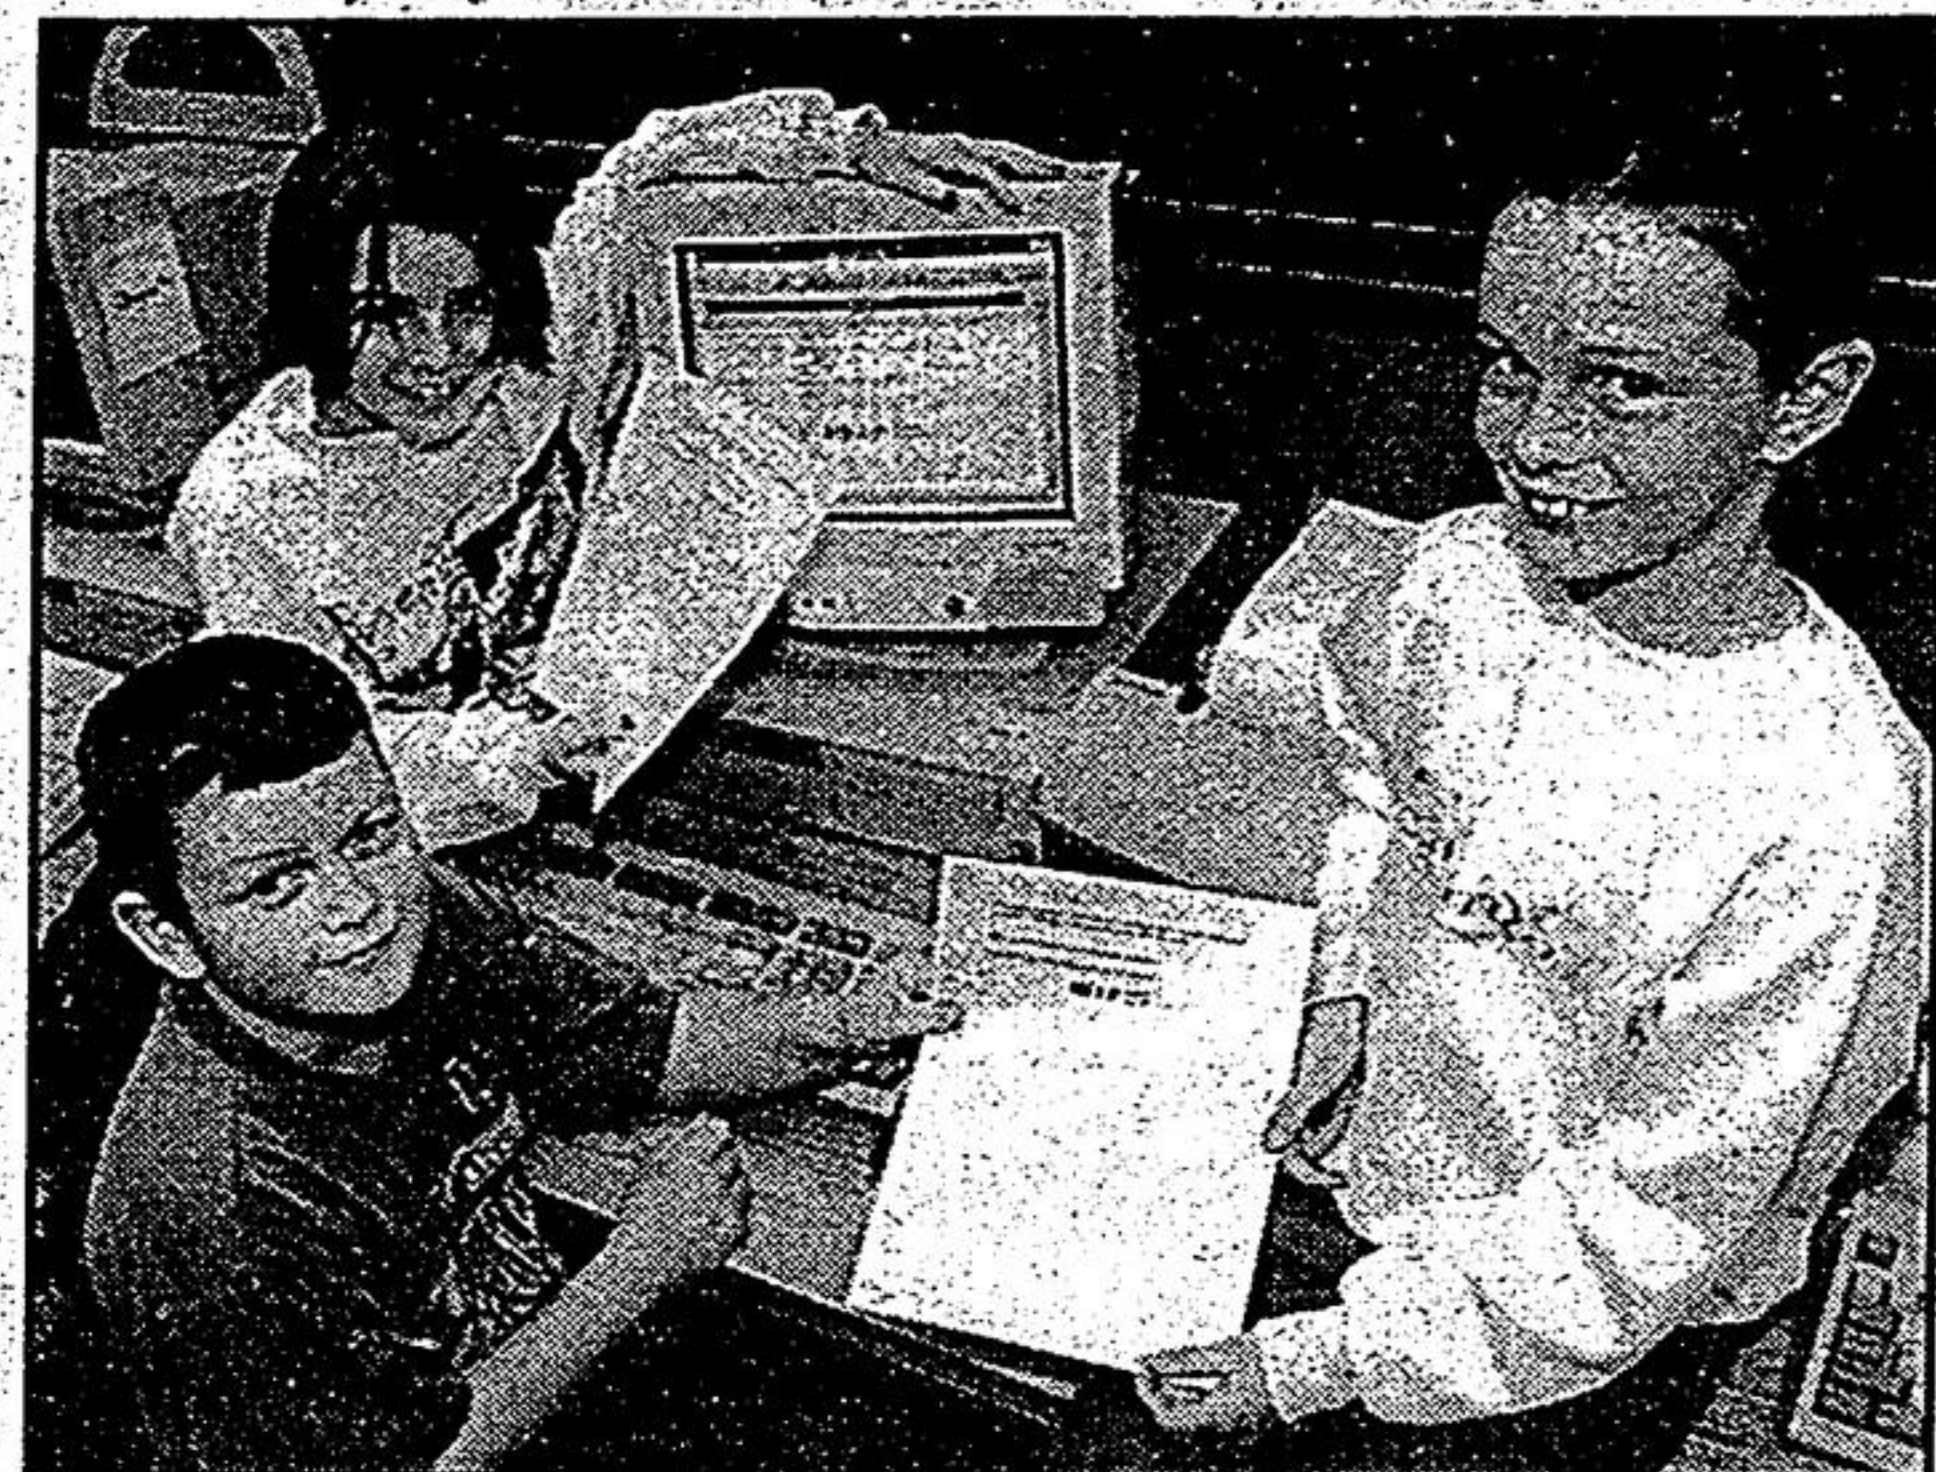

Summitview Public School is the proud owner of a new computer printer, thanks to the Mayor's Youth Fund. The Main Street school used its $1,000-donation from the fund to buy the printer as a way to "greatly enhance the use of the school computer," explains school principal Wally Robinson.

Money from the fund is raised at the annual Mayor's golf tournament. As well, individual donations are part of the fund.

Every school in Whitchurch-Stouffville gets a $1,000 gift, stresses local Mayor Wayne Emmerson.

A seven-member committee, including two students, oversees the fund. "The committee helps decide where the money goes," said Emmerson. "It does help our young people."

Robinson appreciates the gift. "Thanks to those in the community who supported the fund raising events which
