Try cranberries for colour and zest

Christmas is almost upon us. Everything is so bright and pretty this time of the year, the lights and the decorations really attract your attention, so this leads me to think about dressing up my food.

I love the beautiful red of sundried cranberries and this year I am adding them to very ordinary foods.

The colour will bring the food to life and the cranberries will add a tangy touch of flavour.

This recipe for Cranberry Scones is easy and perfect for this holiday season.

The scones are wonderful filled with leftover turkey and sweet hot mustard for a fabulous sandwich.

Sundried cranberries are usually available from any bulk food section in any grocery store.

CRANBERRY SCONES

makes 16-20
 3 cups prepared baking mix (Bisquick or President's Choice)
 1/4 cup sugar
 2 large eggs
 2/3 cup milk

1/2 cup sundried cranberries, finely chopped

Preheat oven to 425 degrees F and prepare a baking sheet by spraying with cooking spray.

Put baking mix and sugar in a mixing bowl and aerate. Beat eggs with a fork and add the milk, then add the milk mixture to the baking mix and stir until dry ingredients are moistened.

Blend in cranberries, gather the dough together and form a ball. Place the dough on a floured board and pat out. With a floured cookie cutter, cut the scones into rounds.

Sprinkle extra sugar on scones and bake for about 12 mins. or until golden brown.
