

Dear Santa: Here's my list

The following letters were submitted by our young readers, handwritten and unedited -

Just like mommy's

Dear Santa:
For Christmas I would like a pretend sewing machine - just like mommy's. I have been very good and I passed my swimming lessons.
Would you please bring a sculpture for my baby sister Taya, she is 1 year old. (19 months).
Thank you, I will leave you just one cookie like you asked.

Alexandra

Do you know what dad wants?

Dear Santa:
This year I don't want any presents! My sister wants the whole Aqua Zone. My mom would like a blender. Santa do you know what my dad wants? Because I haven't had a clue what that is. You can give anything you want. I want to ask you how's it going up there at the North Pole? Are your reindeer okay? Hope they are not teasing Rudolph again! We are preparing a great Christmas - this year. I've decided I would kind of be a gift giver like you! I kind of feel sorry for you because you have to go all around the world delivering presents.

I hope you have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

P.S. Please say Merry Christmas to Mrs. Claus and the others.

Please rely. Thanks!
love from one of your million of friends

Cookies for Santa

Dear Santa Claus:
I will put out cookies and milk for you, and carrots for the reindeer on Christmas eve. I like you Santa. I have been a really good boy all year long. My brother, Hunter has also been a good baby boy all year long too. So would you leave Christmas gifts for Hunter and me when you come to my house Christmas Eve.

In case your wondering, here are some gift ideas I would be happy to receive. Mousetrap, tool box, train set and toy cars.
Love Harrison Greenough
