

Citizenship and Heritage Week

Test your knowledge on Canada heritage

How much do you know about Canada?

Monday is our Heritage Day, and this is Citizenship and Heritage Week across the country. The federal government's Heritage Canada is boosting interest in our national lore by asking questions of Canadians. Here are a few (answers are below).

1. Which former prime minister's face appears on the $5 bill?

2. Which Canadian city is known as the "Polar Bear Capital of the World"?

3. What is the name of the character who made author Lucy M. Montgomery famous?

4. For what did former Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson win a Nobel Prize?

5. Name the board game invented by two Montrealers.

If you want to organize some activities related to heritage, you can call 1-888-241-9439 toll free before Feb. 20.

You might want to have a flag-raising ceremony tomorrow, the 33rd anniversary of our Canadian flag. Or, you could grab some scissors and glue and make a collage out of some old magazines and catalogues.

"Have fun demonstrating what Canada and Canadian citizenship means to you," Heritage Canada says.

These are the answers for the quiz: 1. Sir Wilfred Laurier 2. Churchill, Manitoba 3. Anne of Green Gables 4. Modern peacekeeping 5. Trivial Pursuit
