Eastern Gate Retirement Community is "The Place for You" if:

- you are 55 or more
- you want the safety and security of a caring, interdenominational Christian community
- you want to reside in Stouffville near medical facilities and golf courses
- you want to live in a bungalow without the outside work and responsibilities
- you want to travel, knowing your home is looked after
- you have some dreams that could happen with less equity tied up in your present home
- you like high quality at affordable prices.

In Their Own Words

Question: After living here for some time, what do you most appreciate about Eastern Gate?

"I love the quality of my home and the wonderful new friendships made. I appreciate the integrity and caring relationship between the people and the administration."

Marion Hodgson

"We appreciate the sense of peace and tranquility in the community and the friendliness of all the residents."

Wayne & Diane Henderson

"I love everything! I love being in Stouffville close to my family where I can walk to get anything I need. I appreciate the low monthly costs to live here."

Eva Hardy

"As a single lady, I feel safe and secure at Eastern Gate. If I need help it is there promptly for me. The people are just great here."

Evelyn Doner

"At Eastern Gate we have worry free independence. It is a community of active seniors that still have the time for neighbours."

Glenys & Walter Drewery

"All the maintenance is done for me. I appreciate the security here. The cedar deck and the front verandah were deciding factors for me. I don't like feeling confined."

Phyllis Stouffer

"We searched for 5 years for a retirement option. We looked in Uxbridge, Markham, Beaverton, Lindsay, Bobcaygeon and Port Perry."

"When we met Cathy at Eastern Gate we were so pleased with the whole set up, we made our decision within a week, that this community is what suited us best. In town, but in the country at the same time. We are very impressed with the construction and quality of our new home."

"Having all the security of all our needs looked after we have never looked back. Cathy & Paul have been tremendous to work with and Peter Schwind (Site Supervisor) is great too."

Question: Why should I retire in Eastern Gate?

"Answer: You have all the space you need and amenities. Everything is looked after. It's a fabulous community to live in."
