

Magician will amaze, astound kids on break

LIBRARY NEWS

March Break is fast approaching and the library is getting ready to be boarded by pirates.

Your library is a proverbial treasure chest of information. In celebration of this fact, March Break events will incorporate a pirate theme. Youngsters can come on board and become a crew member during the upcoming March Break events.

Tuesday, Mar. 17, 11 a.m. - The Magician, Owen Anderson, will amaze, amuse, and astound you his incredible feats of magic. This hour long program will close with a cannon ball battle — of sorts.

Wednesday, Mar. 18 is a double treat. At 11 a.m. the Really Little Theatre group will perform "Rock'n Fables." This professional touring theatre company performs Pop Opera for Children based on classic tales. Pirate mustaches are optional, but can be obtained at the door.

After "Rock'n Fables," Cheryl Uhrig will read her latest children's book, Don't Bug the Dog. Everyone is welcome to hear her read this entertaining tale. Autographed books will be available!

On Thursday, Mar. 19 at 11 a.m. children can join the crew of the musical entertainers, Smudge Fundaes. This group of talented musicians presents a fun-filled entertaining program consisting of music, singing and dancing with lots of audience participation.

Capt'n Matt's Treasure Hunt is a fun, interactive one-man puppet show performed on Friday, Mar. 20 at 11 a.m. The audience helps to track down the elusive pirate who has stolen the treasure!

Live performances will take place at 11 a.m. from Tuesday to Friday. A priority entry "pirate passport" will allow children to see all performances for $5. These passports can be pre-purchased at the library. Daily admission is $2 per person.

Once again, the library gives a hearty thanks to the Stouffville Lions Club for its generous $1,000 donation towards the March Break activities and to the Ontario Arts Council for its financial support.

You can call the library for further details at 640-2395. See you on board the library's Pirate Ship of Adventure!

Epilepsy York Region holds income tax session Wednesday

Tax time is upon us again, and for many families of disabled children, wading through a complex income tax system designed to both raise revenues and assist the disabled, can be a challenging enterprise.

In response to these issues, Epilepsy York Region, in association with life Trust Planning is sponsoring a public presentation, on Income Tax and Disability Tax Credits, Wednesday, Mar. 11. A panel of experts will discuss, among other items: credits for medical expenses, special rules for disability payments and GST health care exemptions.

Guests for the evening include: Andrea Sahadath, CA, KPMG Accounting; John Dowson, president of LifeTrust Planning and lawyer; Howard Weisberg, Moderator is Carter Hammett, Epilepsy York Region.

The presentation starts at 7:30 p.m. at the Loyal True Blue and Orange Home, 11181 Yonge St., Richmond Hill. Suggested donation is $5 at the door. For more information, call (905) 508-5404. Epilepsy York Region is a community-based, multi-service, non-profit agency providing supportive, educational and advocacy services to people affected by seizure disorders and their associates in York Region.
