Drug awareness night held at school

Ballantrae Public School is hosting an evening on Drug Awareness April 7 at 7:30 p.m. for interested parents and guardians in the community. Constable Ron Veyt, from the Community Services Department of York Regional Police, will provide information on types of drugs and their effect on young people. He will also discuss the signs of drug abuse and the paraphernalia employed by users. The evening is being organized and presented by the school councils of Whitchurch-Stouffville.

Among the adult programs are tennis, golf, line dancing and a comprehensive course on designing and maintaining a beautiful garden, with instructor Denis Flanagan. Summer program registration begins March 23. Aquatic courses for all skill levels are offered, as well as summer camp, tennis camp and a new T-ball camp. For details on programs, consult your Parks, Facilities and Recreation guide or call 640-6527.

Spring Registration
 Registration for spring programs offered by Whitchurch-Stouffville Parks and Recreation Department begins March 16. Youth activities include dance, tumbling, toys and tykes, golf, T-ball clinics and horseback riding.

March Break at the library
 If you want to keep the kids happy during March break, bring them down to Whitchurch-Stouffville Library for some great live entertainment taking place at 11 a.m. March 17 to 20. The fun begins Tuesday with magician Owen Anderson, who will be followed Wednesday by Rockin'

Grapevine

Kate Gilderdale

Fables, presented by the Really Little Theatre. Smudge Fundaes offer lively musical entertainment Thursday and Captain Matt's Treasure Hunt rounds off the week.

Admission is $2 for each show, or $5 for a passport which covers all events and is available now at the library. March break programs are supported by the Ontario Arts Council and the Stouffville Lions Club.

Gallery news
 Latcham Gallery's next exhibition, which opens March 22, features work by the Broken Fence

Society. The not-for-profit artists cooperative has created a selection of works which focus on the environmental problems of the modern world and look at ways of addressing those problems. The opening reception is March 22 from 2 to 3:30 p.m., with a gallery lecture April 12 at 2 p.m. For more information call 640-2395.

Sap flows
 It's maple syrup time at Bruce's Mill on Stouffville Road and the facility is offering tours of the sugar bush, demonstrations of syrup making, sap samples and wagon rides.

The Maple Syrup Festival runs until April 13 and the conservation area will be open on weekends and daily throughout March break.
