

Consider good dog owners

Dear Editor,
I'd like to comment concerning the article entitled "Dog laws get more bite" in the March 19 Tribune. I am the lucky owner (not a breeder) of three soft-coated wheaten terriers. My pets have a secure, safe, dog run along the side of my house. This area is cleaned and disinfected on a regular basis. My neighbours have never complained about my dogs and in fact it has just been the opposite. I am proud to say that the dogs are quiet and well behaved. In fact, one of my males has the "Canine Good Citizen" award. I realize that there are problems with inconsiderate people regarding the stoop and scoop issue, but please consider people like myself. I really believe that having multiple dogs makes one more considerate and responsible. Dogs are a lifetime commitment!
