New owners for store

Pat Houston liked her job so much, she bought the company.

Houston, a long-term employee of Stouffville Home Video, struck a partnership with her sister-in-law Gail Finn. The pair took video store owner Hugh Coghill up on his offer and bought the local video store lock, stock and barrel.

Stouffville Home Video owners Gail Finn and Pat Houston.

The business purchase made up of more than 2,000 movies, including the new releases, took effect on Wednesday. Houston is a movie buff. When the newly released movies arrive on Tuesdays, Houston makes a point of seeing as many as possible. If a customer asks about a specific movie, Houston usually knows the answer. As well, she gets to know what the regular customers like. If asked, she can help make a suitable selection. It's a feature that is appreciated by the regulars.

The Stouffville Home Video carries the latest video games making the store popular with youth.

Houston and Finn have put together a price package. Two new movie releases rent for $5, while one movie cost $4. As well, Houston and Finn offer a package made up of 5 older movies for five days for $5. "This is popular," said Houston. "This is a good business. Gail and I expect to do well," said Houston.

Stouffville Home Video, located in the Success Plaza, will be open seven days a week. It will close at 9 p.m. Sunday to Thursday and 10 p.m. Friday and Saturday. Stouffville Home Video will be a hands-on management business. Houston lives in Claremont, while Finn is a Stouffville resident.

Simon Lee

You can never say enough about a man who was loved so much.
This big man touched so many hearts, though his laugh and smile is gone forever.
His hand and bear hugs we now cannot touch.
Whether golfing or at the Arms, never a whine did you hear,
always smiling and laughing and in good cheer.
He'd be sad to see all our tears, but still we have so many memories of the one we all loved so much.
Simon's memory is our keepsake with which we'll never part.
Even though he stands over six-foot seven and died so young at only forty eight.
The next time I see my friend it will be heaven. I'm so glad he was my mate.
He's even got them laughing at the Pearly Gates,
when he tells them how we broke that Taxi Krate.
Now God has my friend in his keeping,
But we will always have big Simon in our hearts.
