JOAN L. BARTON

passed away April 5th, 1997. Our circle is now incomplete without your hands to touch. Still we have a chest of memories of the one we loved so much. Though your smile is not forever, we know you do live on in our smiles and tears of thoughts, a part of you will never be gone. Your memory is our keepsake with which we'll never part. God has you in His keeping, we have you in our hearts. Thank you for the greatest gift of all. Your life, your love and yourself. Forever loved Dave & Shawn.

Michael Robert MacKenzie (Jock)

June 14, 1967 - April 6, 1997. A belated thank you to all who have offered their thoughtful and kind support to the MacKenzie family since the passing of my husband last year. Thanks also to those who donated to the Trust Fund. Michael is sadly missed.

*There is a wind where the rose was,
Cold rain where sweet grass was,
And clouds like sheep,
Stream o'er the steep,
Grey skies where the lark was,
Nought gold where your hair was,
Nought warm where your hand was,
But phantom form,
Beneath the thorn,
Your ghost where your face was,
Sad winds where your voice was,
Tears, tears where my heart was,
And ever with me,
Child, ever with me,
Silence, where hope was.*
- Walter de la Mare
Love Jennifer.

In memory of a dear friend who passed away March 31, 1998. "DINTY" Your car will no longer grace the driveway floor. Nor will we see you coming through the door. We'll miss the jokes and tricks you used to play. The stories that you told in your own funny way. The meals that we shared, the things we would do. Won't be as much fun, not sharing them with you. Most of all it was having you as a friend. That gave us all pleasure, right to the end. Respect and equality was given to everyone you knew. Where there was a need, you always came through. So farewell to you, Dinty, fond memories of you. Will pacify our grief, and see us through. We'll grieve no more, it's not how you wanted things to be. We'll grant you the "smiling" send-off you requested to see. Fondly remembered by Diane, Jack, Tammy, Stew, & Maxine
