STOREFRONT CONSERVATION WORKSHOP 1998

Join us for a Workshop on Storefront Conservation. This workshop is being organized by the Ministry of Citizenship, Culture and Recreation with the Whitchurch-Stouffville LACAC and Business Development Department. The workshop program will provide participants with information on the history and components of storefronts, on local and regional examples of successful storefront conservation, on municipal planning issues in conserving historic commercial centres and on motivating people to conserve their storefront. In addition, the program will include a hands-on field activity examining local storefronts.

Wednesday, May 13, 1998 in Whitchurch-Stouffville, Ontario - at the Business Development Office, Train Station, Main Street.

The workshop is offered free of charge to any tenant or owner of a commercial building in Whitchurch-Stouffville and participants must pre-register. The workshop will be held from 9:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. Course materials will be provided and light refreshments will be served. For further information contact Eric Lismanis, Whitchurch-Stouffville Business Development Office at 905-640-7855.
