Drivers honk for a reason

Dear Editor,

To the angry young woman in Weston Produce's parking lot Friday afternoon, May 8, who was having her young son dropped off to her.

I apologize if honking my horn at the person dropping off your son off upset you. You jumped to the conclusion I was in a hurry. However, what you could not see was the individual had their car in reverse with the back up lights on. I was concerned not only for your son's safety, as he was opening and closing doors, but mine as well, as the car began backing up. The last thing I wanted was any injuries to anyone.

"Hey people - stop jumping to conclusions when someone honks their horn - there may be a good reason why."

Councillor thanks park volunteers

Dear Editor,

On Saturday, May 2, the Vandorf Community held the first Vandorf Park spring clean up.

We did not have a shotgun start, people started arriving from 9:30 a.m. The clean up time lasted about 2 hours. A fair number of residents arrived. Women outnumbered men and children outnumbered parents.

I would like to thank all of those persons who came and worked together tirelessly.

This event was successful and very gratifying, and I will propose to the Vandorf Committee that next year's clean up be held for Earth Day.

Steve Pliakes
