

Soccer girls Attack Bradford with 7-1 victory

Stouffville's York Attack under-13 girls' soccer team scored straight A's in their first test last Thursday.

The Attack overwhelmed Bradford 7-1 in the Central Girls Soccer League debut for both squads at the Rec Centre fields.

Attack co-captain Caitlin Malone of Aurora collected four goals to lead the winners, while Stouffville residents Ashley Sherwood, Marlee Brooks and Julie Bagshaw rounded out the scoring.

Attack coach Alfons Rubbens said his players quickly got over their early game jitters to set the tone.

"The girls were intimidated at the start because the Bradford players were bigger than them," said Rubbens. "But once the game got going they soon got their confidence up and put on a great exhibition of ball control and passing."

Rubbens said he's delighted at what he's seen so far with his team.

"I have some very good players, at least five of the best in York Region. That doesn't make a team, you've got to have 11 players, but the others are learning from those five."

He said his players have quickly formed a cohesive unit.

"They've bonded as a team."

The Attack are in Newmarket Thursday, then return to Stouffville to play an exhibition game against the Whitchurch-Stouffville Soccer Club's under-15 select girls squad June 2 at 7:30 p.m. at the Rec Centre field.

Also, players and coaches will receive an automatic one-game suspension for "trash talk" beginning in the 1998-99 season.

The new season will see the WSMHA adopt a policy whereby members of select teams will no longer be eligible for houseleague play. WSMHA officials said the select players were progressing much quicker than other houseleague players, affecting the competitiveness of the houseleague program.
