We couldn't lower your score, so we did the next best thing

We've lowered Canterbury Common's green fees by $10!

At ClubLink, we think Canterbury Common Golf Club is one of the best 9-hole bent grass courses around. After all, it was crafted by renowned Canadian golf course architect Douglas Garrick.

And now you can enjoy playing this beautiful and challenging course on a daily fee basis, for $10 less than last year. That's great value for a great day of golf.

So tee up at Canterbury Common, now enjoying its first full season as part of the ClubLink group of fine golf courses.

We hope you'll join us on the green.
