A weekend of fun at the Markham Village Festival

It's almost time for the Markham Village Festival. This year marks the 20th anniversary of the two-day festival that draws over 30,000 people to Main Street Markham.

There is everything you want for family fun at the festival," said Jack Heath, Markham's Ward 5 councillor and chair of this year's festival.

There is something for people of all ages to do and see at Morgan Park, said Judi McIntyre, the entertainment and fundraising co-ordinator for the festival.

There are a number of carnival rides (including two new ones), a grappling (wrestling) tournament, mini-putt and a petting zoo among other things.

The Markham Aquatic Club and the Markham Synchro Club will be doing demonstrations at Morgan Pool.

The pool will also be open all weekend for free swimming.

But that is not all that is happening. People can stroll through the craft booths and sample mouth-watering food from the 110 vendors that will be lining Main Street.

People can enjoy their typical festival foods like hot dogs, sausage on a bun and fries, but this year they can also try foods from places in far reaches of the world including Greece, East India and many other countries.

Main Street merchants are also participating in the festival. Many merchants are offering festival specials both in their store and on the street.

Those who don't want to spend their whole day shopping can watch and participate in the many activities that are happening throughout the day.

People can watch skateboarding and dance demonstrations and street performers, participate in kiddie games, go through the fire department's smoke house and more.

But many people are now coming to the festival for the music.

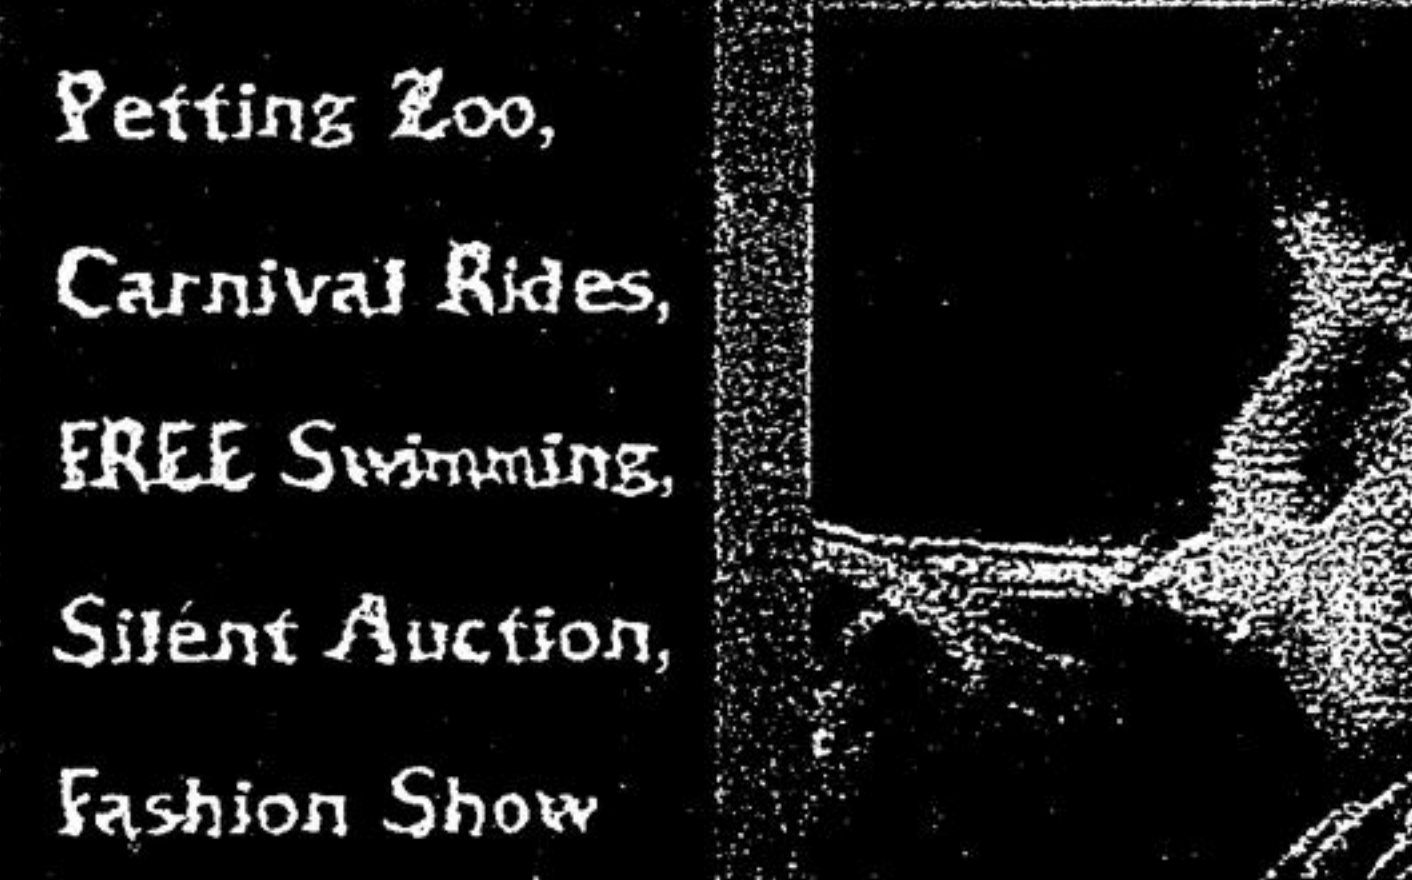

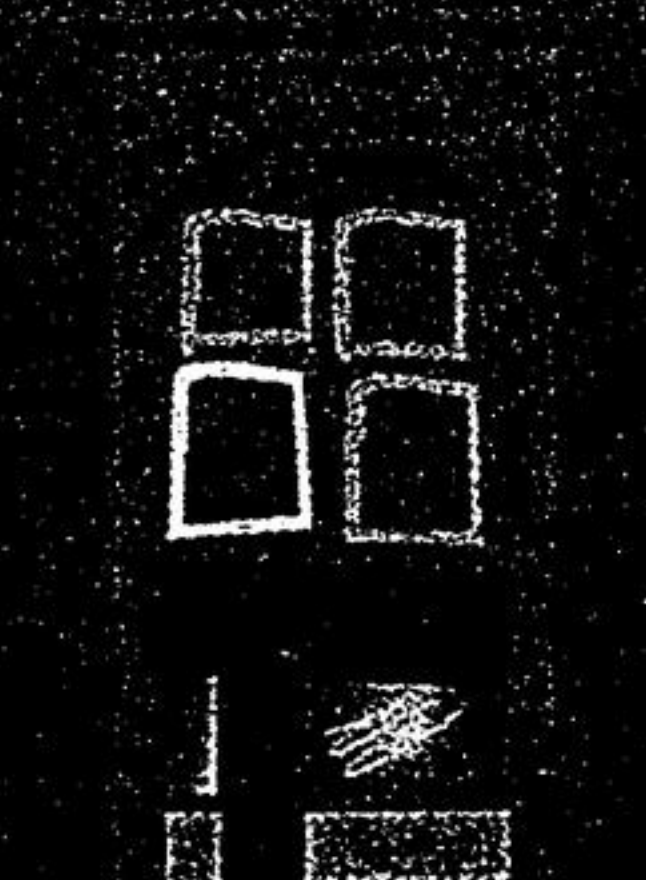

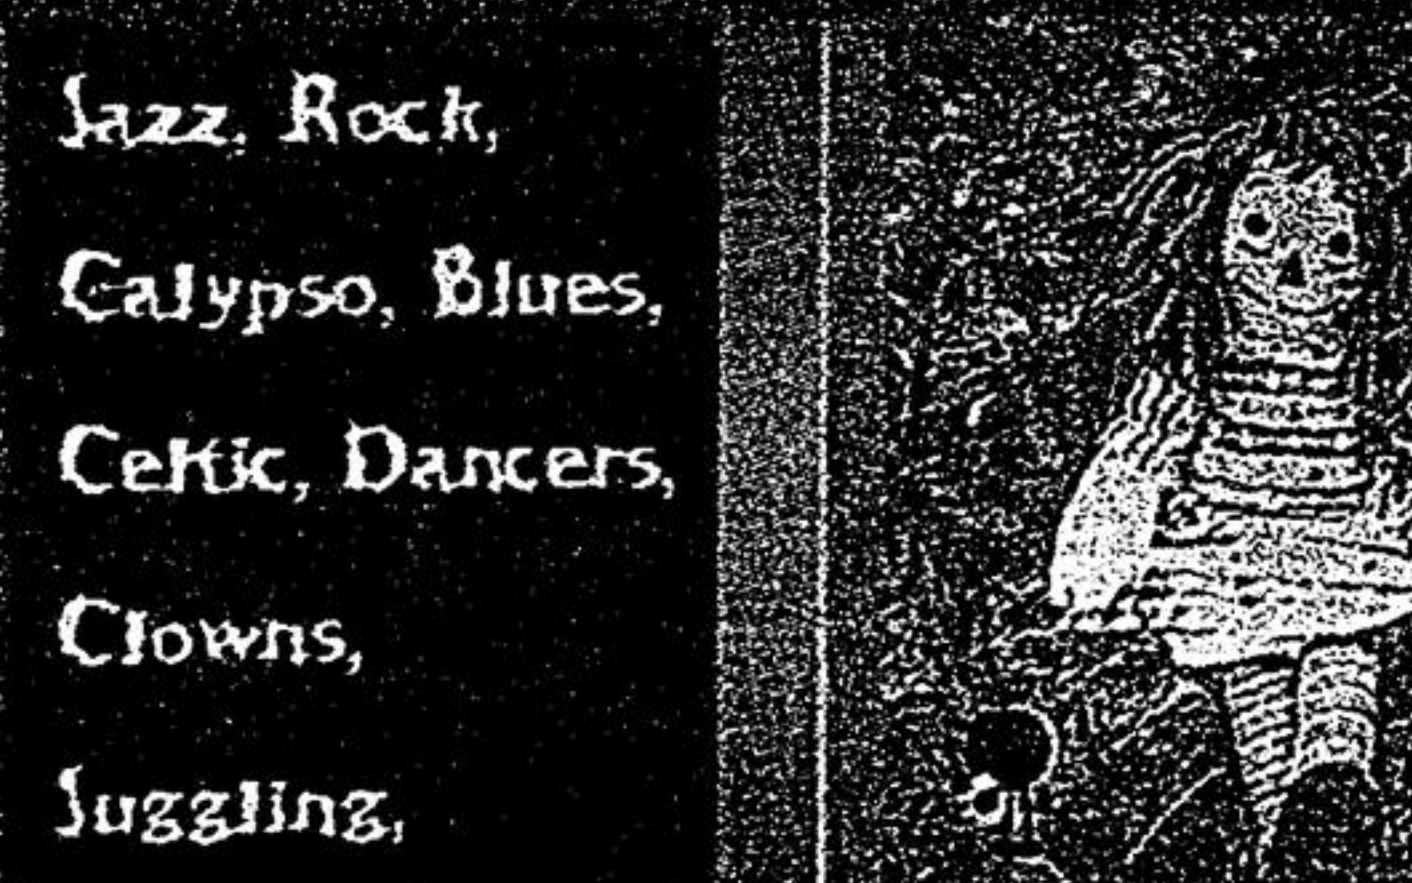

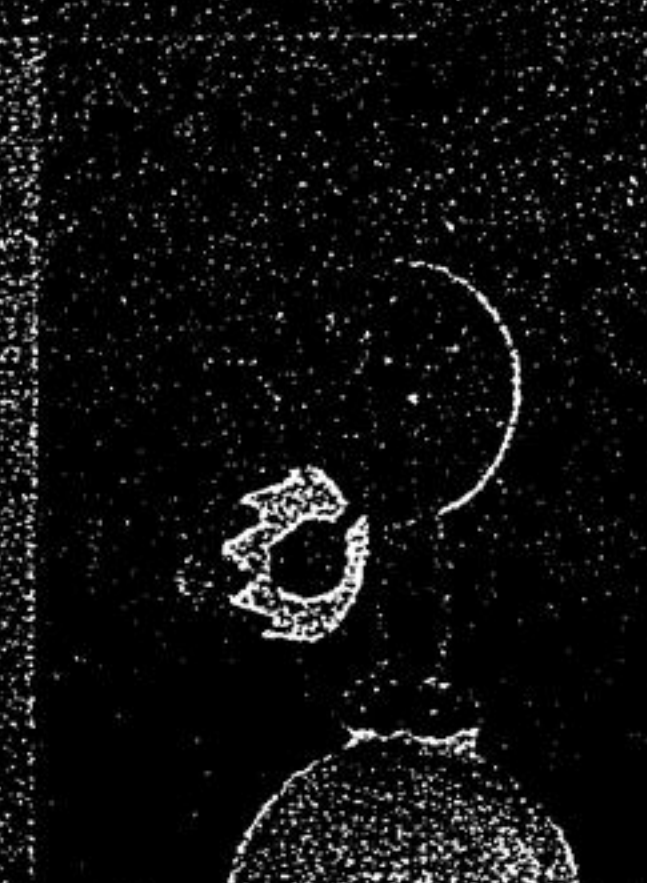

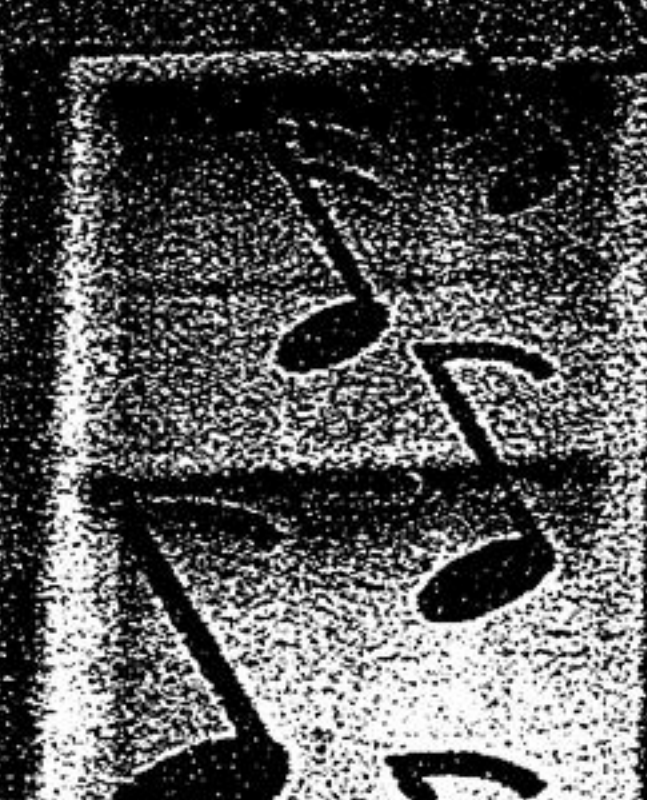

There is entertainment for everybody. Children can watch and sing along with Ariel, The Little Mermaid, while adults can enjoy the Tribute to ERIC Burdon. People can also watch the Blackboard Blues Band who are performing in the Pub Room on Saturday night.

The Spice Girls will also be at the festival.

All Spice Girls fans are encouraged to dress up as their favorite Spice Girl (Ginger Spice, Posh Spice and so on) and parade in the Spice Girls parade at the festival.

There are also many other activities and entertainment for everyone. The festival is a great time to see and hear some of the best live music in the area.
