

Coaches receive recognition for their efforts

Award
Veteran girls' slow-pitch coach Al Piette, who is retiring this spring, was given a going away present of a golden softball and bat. Piette fell victim to a heart attack early in the season, with Bill McKnight taking over as the squad went on to capture the school's only York Region Athletic Association (YRAA) title of the year. McKnight paid tribute to Piette.

"He was an example as a coach," he said. "He finished the race."
A tearful Piette humbly thanked McKnight for taking over the team in his absence. He released the banner on the gymnasium wall acknowledging the slow-pitch championship.
McKnight also had praise for retiring teacher Ron Dempster, who served with McKnight as co-coach of the YRAA finalist Spartans boys' hockey team last season.

Coach Heather Henricks congratulated her senior girls' volleyball team for achieving its goal of qualifying for the 1998 Ontario Federation of Schools Athletic Association (OFSAA) championships.
The SDSS squad advanced to the provincial final when they were finalists in the YRAA playoffs.
The night was organized by the school's Athletic Council, with council co-chairs Brenda Robbins and Chris Weatherill serving as masters of ceremonies.

Teachers Carey Spiece and Elaine Alexiou drew the applause of all in attendance when they went up on stage to kiss a rather nervous live pig.
The two were top money raisers in a Hospital For Sick Children fundraiser that saw students deposit money in jars bearing the name of the teacher of their choice. Upwards of $160 was raised in total.

Mill Run to host Hospice tourney

The Mill Run Golf and Country Club is to be the site of the third annual Hospice Golf Tournament on July 22.
The event is in support of Evergreen Hospice, formerly Hospice Markham-Stouffville.
The tourney gets under way at 11 p.m. and is to take the form of a four-person scramble with a Canadian touring pro assigned to each foursome.
The price is $175 per person. The fee includes golf and cart, dinner, four-hole-in-one contests featuring new cars as prizes, a putting contest, "Beat the Pro" contest and other prizes.
The corporate entry fee is $1000 (for a foursome), which includes a hole sponsorship.
Tournament organizers are seeking out donations of prizes from local businesses.
People interested in playing in the tourney or donating prizes should call 472-5014.
