

Schools, students win awards

Schools and students were recognized this week by the York Region District School Board for outstanding achievements.

Stouffville District Secondary School student Wendy Wright earned the 1998 Daimler-Benz Award of Excellence for outstanding academic performance focusing on contemporary Germany.

Middlefield Collegiate Institute students Saralyn Covent, Arif Manji, Sanjutha Balasunderam, Amar Kulkarni, Naureen Shameem, Alanzo Hessing, Samia Alam and Rami Fahim earned second-place finish in the province-wide Attorney General's Mock Trial Tournament Competition. Manji also placed second for the Litigator of the Year award.

Middlefield students Jason Yin, Steven Tseng, Bina Mistry and William Chan won second in the Educational Computing Organization of Ontario Computer Programming Contest.

Environmental awards went to Milliken and Reesor public schools for their efforts to improve the environment by enhancing school grounds, enriching outdoor education curriculum and minimizing waste.

Unionville High School Symphonic Wind Ensemble won The Ontario Music Festivals Association's Belle Air Trophy for the 5th time in the past six years.
