

Get boarding passes for Titanic summer

LIBRARY NEWS

Get your boarding pass for a TITANIC summer of reading! Children can get on board the Library's Titanic Summer Reading program starting July 2.

The Summer Reading Program will start with a gala boarding party hosted by Celery Dion, and a cast of other celebrity puppets performed by the Peter Peter Puppet Theatre. Admission is $1 at the door.

The boarding party starts at 10 a.m. and is followed by sign-up and activities to start this year's summer reading program. For those who cannot join the boarding party, registration can be made at a later time.

Lifeboat Rally

Reading activities include a lifeboat rally where children find a seat in a lifeboat and select a book to start their summer reading adventures.

Children can also have a character slide down the icy slopes of an iceberg to select their next book. Card games, shuffleboard, life saver toss and trivia questions round off the other reading activities.

After children read a book, they must summarize the story to a Titanic crew member (a.k.a. library staff).

After each step, children will have their passport stamped before they move on to the next step of the voyage.

Still openings

This is an independent reading program where children can read at their own pace. For youngsters who want to participate but cannot yet read, family members can do the reading for them. The children, however, still summarize the story before going on to the next step.

Reading program hours end 1/2 hour before closing.

For those interested in other activities this summer, there are still openings for following library activities:

Drama For Kids (July 14-17) Ages: 5-8

Creative Adventures (July 21-24) Ages: 3-5
