Bennett retires his post at town

A 'job well done' message was delivered to Whitchurch-Stouffville building director Bob Bennett last Thursday night. Bennett will leave his post in August after a decade of service with the town. Colleagues, town officials, politicians and family members helped Bennett celebrate his retirement at a bash at Angie's Eatery last Thursday.

Bennett took over the top post in the building department in 1989. In the past decade, he helped mastermind a host of money-making decisions and as a building director, Bennett faced many challenges and saw plenty of change.

Whitchurch-Stouffville Mayor Wayne Emmerson praised Bennett. He carried out his work with efficiency and interest, said Emmerson. And through it all, "Bob was well liked," Emmerson added.

Before coming to this municipality, Bennett worked in Markham and in Scarborough.

Bennett also built two family homes in the local area in the past 30 years. Married to Donna, the couple has two sons, Erin and Jamie, his wife Lisa and grandson, Kyle. The Bennetts plan to move to Nova Scotia where they have a home.
