

POLICE: Drugs, stolen vehicles seized

Biker gangs targeted in raid

Police have laid 74 charges against 17 people and recovered $700,000 in stolen property after early morning simultaneous raids in Toronto and York and Durham regions Monday that targeted members of Satan's Choice motorcycle club.

York Regional Police Sgt. John Sheldon said police executed 14 search warrants, nine or 10 in York Region, including one at Digital Supercity on Pony Drive in Newmarket shortly before 7 a.m.

Most of the warrants were executed at residences in Vaughan, Aurora, Richmond Hill, Keswick and Wilfred east of Pefferlaw for fraud, drugs and stolen property charges.

A few of those charged were Satan's Choice members, he said, but the majority were biker associates.

Among those members of the club arrested and charged was Stephen Readhead, 36, president of the Keswick Satan's Choice chapter.

Officers recovered 12 vehicles, most of them sport utility trucks, a large boat, motor and trailer during the investigation, Sheldon said.

A large quantity (of the 4X4s) were purchased for a fraction of the cost by undercover officers.

Police also seized seven pounds of hashish, four pounds with a street value of $16,000 was purchased as part of the investigation by undercover officers over the past few weeks, Sheldon said.

An additional three pounds, valued at $28,000, was seized during the raids.

The raids, by a combined forces unit involving Toronto, York, Durham and provincial police that was set up to target outlaw motorcycle clubs, culminated a 16-month investigation, part of the ongoing Project Dismantle.

Funded by the Solicitor General's Ministry, the national project was established in 1995 to target outlaw biker gangs.

OUR PEACH PIES

We use Cling Peaches which have a flavour edge, delicately season them and bake them into a full to overflowing pie which I think is Peach Pie Heaven.

OUR SCONES

Personally, I am not a big scone fan but to my amazement, I'm surrounded by scone lovers - especially Doreen. She pronounced our scones "absolutely delicious". She says it's a really old-fashioned recipe and they can be improved if you heat them 20-30 sec. in your micro and "slather on some butter". We make them daily in our bakery either plain, with raisins, with apple, with strawberries, with cranberries or wild blueberries.

STUFFED PORK TENDERLOINS

A very popular item in our Meat Counter is our stuffed Pork Tenderloin.

They're so easy to prepare - just roast them for 45-50 minutes in a 350° oven.

What's the stuffing? It's our traditional sage and onion stuffing with some diced apricots and prunes added. How do we get the stuffing in without splitting them? That's a trade secret. No secret about how delicious they are though!

TERIYAKI SAUSAGES

A great dinner sausage, but that's not all! You can pan-fry or B.B.Q. these in the traditional way, but they're really great cut into a stir fry. Very tasty stuff!

HASS AVOCADOES

We sell the Hass variety of avocados, almost exclusively because they have a much better flavour than the larger, smooth-skinned Florida variety. These are identifiable by having a rougher skin - in fact, they're sometimes called Alligator pears on account of this bumpiness. Not that these are small - in fact, they'll serve 2. My wife Cathy, who is a cook extraordinaire, sometimes cuts these into a tossed salad to excellent effect.

However you eat these, you'll love them.

PESTO PASTA SALAD

Most of you know by now that Pesto is a pasta sauce made with basil, garlic, pine nuts, good Parmesan and olive oil. Most don't know though, that it's an excellent seasoning when used to spice up many other dishes. Our Pesto Pasta Salad is a prime example of what's possible. An unbelievably delicious salad! - Best served at room temperature.

COMING NEXT WEEK

For next weekend we'll be making our wonderful smoked whole Rainbow Trouts. If you've been craving one, keep this in mind.

OUR ROAST PORK LOIN

In our Deli this week we're featuring our Roast Pork Loin stuffed with our homemade sage & onion dressing. They're available warm for dinner (by the piece) or sliced for sandwiches. Incidentally, did you ever wonder why we almost always have a special on some cut of pork loin, whether it's peameal bacon, smoked pork chops, bacon or souvlaki? It's because we select the pork loins we receive and sort them for tenderness. The tender loins of pork are sold fresh in the counter (pork chops, roasts, etc.) and those less tender are further processed into items which don't require such a tender cut. Our butchers are continuously amazed at my stubbornness on this point - and the delivery men from the pork companies are amazed at how often they visit us (4x a week) and how much pork chop they bring. So next time you're sitting down to a pork chop or roast and it turns out either tough or dry, or both, it probably didn't come from our store. To my knowledge, we are the only store I know of who go to these lengths to ensure eating quality. (More on this topic later).

AND THE WINNER IS...

As you are reading this on Thursday evening, we will be drawing the winning ballot in our "You Could Win" Raffle. The fact is though, we are all winners by supporting the charity - and we would like to thank all those who bought raffle tickets for this cause. We'll announce the winner and what revenue was generated in our next ad.

Thank you again.

And a special thanks to the Economist & Sun and Monarch Construction for their kind assistance.

JAANA'S BRUSCHETTA

Jaana uses vine-ripened tomatoes, fresh parsley, lots of fresh garlic, salt and pepper - and more.

You'll need a French Stick (see this week's tip for directions) to make traditional Bruschetta or you can use it as I do - A very light pasta sauce with spaghetti or linguine. The only thing I add is a generous amount of our Deli Pitted Black Italian Olives. It's a lunchtime favourite for the staff.

FRESH PORTOBELLA MUSHROOMS

These are not quite in the same exalted league as Porcini and Chanterelle mushrooms but they're a cut above the common white mushrooms which are so popular. You can use these in place of common whites in salads, soups and casseroles, or you can remove the stem and grill them like a steak (some of them are big). We'll have some recipes available. Give them a try.
