

Best of Markham

Sinfonia Italiana

Family Ristorante/Café

- Your Home Away From Home
- Family Friendly Service
- Homemade Fresh Everyday
- Generous Portions at Affordable Prices
- Comfortable Dinner Atmosphere
- Ideal for East Business Lunch

Salad Bar & Hot Table

From 11:30-3:00 p.m. Mon. to Fri. Only

Summer Hours:

Mon.-Thurs 11:30-10 p.m. Fri. 11:30-10:30 p.m. Sat. 5:30-10:30 p.m.

Sunday Closed Except for Functions

548 Carlton Rd. at Kennedy, Unionville

479-5999

Frederick Horsman Varley Art Gallery

The Frederick Horsman Varley Art Gallery was inspired by the famed Group of Seven artist, Frederick Varley.

The gallery features a permanent collection of Varley's paintings as well as contemporary exhibitions drawn from local, national and international sources.

Some of the exhibits include the Annual York Regional Juried Exhibit ending in August and Common Ground: An Intercultural Dialogue and Exhibition Project beginning October 7 and continuing until November 29.

New ways of seeing and appreciating art are enhanced through a broad range of dynamic hands-on art-related activities including tour groups, school programs, studio courses and lectures and family activities designed to appeal to audiences of all ages and interests.

Weekends and holidays offer a range of engaging interactive family activities focusing on the creation and exploration of art.

The gallery also has a wonderful gift shop and is available for rent for private functions and social gatherings.

For details please call 477-9511. The gallery is located at 216 Main St. Unionville.

Markham Museum

Uncover more than a century of history in the 25 acres of the Museum and Historic Village, with hands-on pioneer activities including The Country Store, the Blacksmith Shop and Ontario's largest old-fashioned carriage display.

The museum is available for rent and the Village Church is a delightful setting for a wedding. Open year-round, the museum hosts a variety of events throughout the year.

Events include the 78th Highlanders Change of Command Parade on September 12. Visitors can witness the colour and pageantry of the change of command for Markham's official regiment - the 78th Highlanders.

October means apples and the museum celebrates the symbol of fall by hosting Applefest, October 17.

Visitors can enjoy apple goodies, crafts, games and of course, fresh-pressed cider and apple butter. Other upcoming events include the Haunted Museum, Breakfast with Santa and more.

For details call the museum at 294-4590 or visit them at 9350 Hwy 48.

Markham Theatre for Performing Arts

Markham Theatre offers a varied program of professional and amateur productions.

People of all ages will enjoy the music, drama, comedy and dance selections the theatre is offering this year.

Under the professional series, many exciting stars will be filling the stage.

These artists include Cleo Laine, Patti Page, Tommy Hunter, The Second City Touring Company, Burton Cummings, Michael Burgess and others.

Children will enjoy the world-famous Bananas in Pajamas, the hit musical Polkaroo and Friends and Juno award-winners Jack Grunsky and Judy and David.

The theatre series offers a number of different types of shows including Salt Water Moon - an enchanting story of young love and Leacock Speaks - a witty look at what it means to be Canadian by the ghost of one of Canada's best-known humorists.

There are also a variety and comedy series from which to choose.

The Theatre is available to rent.

Stage your next social or birthday event at the Markham Theatre.

For details call 305-SHOW (7469). The theatre is located at 171 Town Centre Blvd.

The #1 Real Estate Publication

Markham/Stouffville

REAL ESTATE

Look for it every Saturday in the Markham Economist and Stouffville Tribune

* 87.2%

of Adult readers said that they would look at Markham/Stouffville Real Estate when buying or selling their home.

That's 131,000 Adults

ARE YOU ADVERTISING?

Call 905-291-2100

or 649-2100

Kabat Consultants readership survey 1997

