CRIME WATCH

Ice cream vendor attacked, robbed

Another Dickie Dee vendor was attacked and robbed Sunday afternoon in Markham.

The 13-year-old boy was selling ice cream on Cartmel Dr., in the Brimley Rd.-Denison St. area, about 3:30 p.m.

He was approached by a man who asked for an ice cream, but instead of paying for it, the suspect punched the kid in the head and took off.

He was chased a short distance by a passer-by, but managed to escape.

The thug is described as a black man, 18 to 20, 6' tall, about 185 lbs. with a shaved head. He was wearing a black T-shirt, black pants, a black scarf and a large gold chain.

Anyone with information is asked to call police at 881-1221 or Crime Stoppers at 222-TIPS.

Stereo equipment stolen

More than $4,700 worth of stereo and electronic equipment was stolen from a Stouffville home Thursday.

Police are looking for suspects who forced a screen on the St. John's Sideroad home, between 10 a.m. and 7 p.m.

While there is no damage, theft value is $4,785.

Youths confronted by gang

Two youths have been charged and a third is being sought by police in an Aug. 6 assault on two teens.

The attack took place on Central Park Dr. near the school, when two teens, 14 an 15, were confronted by a gang of 15 to 20 youths about 10:30 p.m.

The pair were punched, kicked and threatened with a butterfly-type knife before they were able to run away and report the incident to police. On Aug. 10 police recovered the knife used and the two arrests followed five days later.

Two Markham youths, both 15, are charged with assault causing bodily harm. The second boy also faces a charge of possessing an offensive weapon.

They appear in Newmarket Provincial Court Sept. 15.

A third arrest is expected shortly.

Suspects sought in break-in

Police are searching for suspects in the break, enter and theft of a Kennedy Rd. Daisy Mart early Saturday morning.

Suspects pried the front door and smashed the window about 3:20 a.m. before disabling both the security alarm and the surveillance cameras inside. They netted cigarettes, lottery tickets, and an undetermined amount of cash. Damage is pegged at $1,500. Anyone with information is asked to call police at 881-1221 or Crime Stoppers at 222-TIPS.
