Local talent showcased at the CNE

BY KATE GILDERDALE
CORRESPONDENT

Acclaimed local group Glovin and members of the Music Mania chorus are among the brightest and best entertainers from across the region selected to perform at the CNE on Wednesday.

The two ensembles, which were invited to participate at the first York Region Day in 1997, proved so popular that they were asked to return for this year's gig.

Glovin members Lorna Fru, Gary Burke, Steve Valentine and Vince Parry will start their set at 4:15 p.m. on the community stage just west of the Food Building.

The quartet will be followed on stage by approximately 30 Music Mania choristers, who will perform a selection of numbers from this year's excellent show.

Anyone who is interested in getting in on next year's act can learn more by attending the first meeting for Music Mania 1999, 7:30 p.m. Sept. 9 at Stouffville United Church.

The Music Mania chorus will perform at The Ex.
