BUSINESS

Tribune moving to Imperial Centre

Newspaper moving its office for only third time in 110 years

The Tribune is on the move. On Tuesday, we will relocate to the Imperial Centre building at the corner of Main Street on Sandiford Drive.

To accommodate the move, The Stouffville Tribune office will be closed on Monday, Sept. 1, although all our phone lines will be in service.

The Tribune will be open for business as usual on Tuesday, Sept. 2 at 9 a.m. at its new location.

The Tribune's new address is 37 Sandiford Drive, Suite 306, Stouffville, Ontario, L4A 7X5.

Our telephone number (640-2100) and fax number (640-5477) will not change.

HIGH-TRAFFIC AREA

The management and staff of The Tribune are looking forward to the move because it offers our customers ample parking space and greater convenience.

The Imperial Centre is also home to the Ministry of Transportation licensing office and will be the new home to staff and politicians of the Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville.

This high-traffic area will make Stouffville's first and largest community newspaper highly visible to a great number of readers as they visit other businesses in the centre.

This move is only the third time The Tribune has relocated in its 110 years serving the community.

For many years The Tribune made its home on Main Street next to The Silver Jubilee, but in the summer of 1991, we moved across the street to our current location.

WEATHER: Mother Nature creates havoc for firefighters

Electrical storm alarms firefighters

Last Sunday night's electrical storm caused havoc across Whitchurch-Stouffville.

There were so many lightning strikes to alarm systems that local fire fighters never stopped working throughout the night.

"It was one call right after another," said Fire Chief Bill Brown. "It seemed to go on forever."

Once an alarm goes off, the property has to be checked, while the alarm must then be reset.

"Wed get one reset and wed be off the next," said Chief Brown.
