Fun day for kids

COMMUNITY DIGEST

Chiropractors all over the world, including two in Markham, will participate in the fifth annual Kids Day America/International event Saturday.

Dedicated to children's health, safety and environmental awareness, it will feature a number of fun and informative events.

Local chiropractors Kevin Hue-Fah and Ken Lee are sponsoring the event. Free spinal exams and scoliosis screenings will be available.

The event will benefit the Starlight Children's Wish Foundation, which grants the wishes of chronically or terminally ill children.

The event is at 33 The Bridle Trail, Unit 8, east side of Kennedy Road just south of 16th Avenue, from noon until 3:30 p.m.

Volunteers sought

The York South Stingrays Swim Club needs volunteers.

The club provides competitive and recreational swimming opportunities to individuals who are mentally challenged. Volunteers are especially needed in Markham and Richmond Hill. The club meets Wednesdays at the Milliken Mills Pool from 3 to 4 p.m. and at the Centennial Pool in Richmond Hill from 7 to 8:30 p.m.

Call Joyce at 887-5335, or Yvonne at 470-2931 for information.
