LIBRARY NEWS: Readers invited to comment on selection

Shelves are brimming with popular new titles

A sure sign that the community is busy is when some popular books manage to slip into the library with very few reserves.

Granted, this is nice for those lucky few who catch the book on a three-week loan, but it means there must be many out there who are missing a good read. Three such books are Tanner on Ice by Lawrence Sanders, Five Ring Circus by Jon Cleary, and Bag of Bones by Stephen King.

These books should appeal to the many mystery readers, even the story by Stephen King, who is usually known for more horror.

It appears that the horror in Bag of Bones is in the form of "vivid nightmares" and a site of "ghostly visitations." Perhaps King has made a switch to more of a gothic mystery than outright terror.

Of course, this brings up another issue. Sometimes an author's style changes and not always is it for the better.

If this is the case, we'd definitely like to know. Feedback is helpful. With limited funds and literally thousands of books to choose from, we appreciate feedback about what is good or what we need to plan to purchase.

If you have comments or suggestions for the adult collection, speak to Catherine. For ideas in the juvenile area, speak to Melanie. Or you can always leave us a note.

In the meantime, browse the new book areas. There is one area for nonfiction and another for fiction.

For selected items which are always signed out, there are photocopies of the covers to alert you to reserve them. Keep in mind that on any given day there are about 4,500 items signed out.

If you don't see the book you need, talk to one of us. As well as being open to suggestions we're usually full of them, too.
